

GERMAN ANSWER TO BE MET
PROMPTLY WITH BRIEF NOTEWILL REITERATE INTENTION TO HOLD GER-MANY TO A "STRICT ACCOUNTABILITY"Von Bernstorff Is Granted Interview With President for Wednesday Noon—Note on Mexican Situation Will Be Issued Today Serving Notice That Deplorable Conditions War Has Brought Must End.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—President Wilson intends so to shape the course of the United States government in the international crisis which has arisen as to leave no doubt abroad of the country's purpose not only to speak but if necessary to act, for the cause of humanity.

Two things were practically determined by the president today in the solemn atmosphere with which Memorial Day developed the national capital.

Must Be Met Promptly.

First that Germany's avoidance of the larger questions of humanity and the spirit of international law by a technical argument on a hitherto undisputed point in the statutes of nations the exercise of the right of visit and search by war craft when encountering merchantmen whether carrying contraband or not—must be met promptly with a note again setting forth briefly the facts as found by investigating officials here as to the cargo and peaceful movement of the Lusitania, and reiterating the earnest intention of the United States to hold the German government to a "strict accountability," for all violations of American rights on the high seas. Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador has been granted an interview with the president for Wednesday noon, but unless he brings some proposal from his government answering the demands of the United States differently from the note just received from Dr. Von Jagow the German foreign minister—a circumstance which is doubted in well informed quarters—the president's course as framed by him in consultation with his cabinet tomorrow will not be materially affected.

To Issue Mexican Statement.

Second, that notwithstanding the critical situation with Germany there shall be issued tomorrow the statement which has been in preparation for several days to be communicated to the leaders of all factions in Mexico, serving notice that unless they themselves bring to an early end the deplorable conditions which their warfare has wrought, some other means will be found by the United States in the interest of humanity to save millions of non-combatant Mexicans from the throes of starvation and further devastation of property.

Tomorrow the president will lay before the cabinet both questions. The effect of the warning to Mexico the president hopes will be the coalition within the next few weeks of the best elements in the southern republic to form a provisional government to which the United States and other countries can accord early recognition. The tense situation produced by the receipt of an unyielding reply from Germany to the request of the United States for reparation for the 100 American lives lost in the sinking of the Lusitania and guarantees against the destruction of American lives or property in the future overshadowed the Mexican problem as well as all other governmental activities today.

Wilson Seeks Solitude.

The president—upon whom rests the burden of deciding the government's foreign policy in the advance of congress—sought solitude during the early hours of the day as he did in the trying days immediately after the sinking of the Lusitania.

He read the newspaper text of the note, the editorial comments, scores of messages and went motoring—his favorite diversion when desirous of undisturbed application to problems of state.

The official text of the German note, differing only in phraseology from the press translation, reached the white house just before noon as the president started for Arlington cemetery to attend the memorial exercises of the G. A. R., and the dedication of the Maine memorial.

Attends Memorial Exercises.

For several hours the president was in the beautiful city of the nation's dead on the green heights of the Potomac. There in an atmosphere of reverence, the prayers of the chaplains and the orations of the cabinet officers, war veterans and others, although phrased in generalities, reflected the grave international crisis now confronting the United States. Pledges of fealty to the president should the nation to uphold its honor find it necessary to fight again as it had before in its history; prayers for peace, and expressions of the hope that the influence of the United States might yet bring peace to Europe through its example of patient restraint occupied the thoughts of the president most of the afternoon. His own speech, drawing attention to the de-ire of those in office guiding the destinies of the United States to embody in their acts the expression of "the untrammeled opinion" of the people of America was interpreted by many of his hearers as meaning that Mr. Wilson was anxious that his course in the international situation be guided by the real wishes of all Americans. While the marine band played between the speeches Mr. Wilson sketched some shorthand notes on his program.

Reads Official Text of Note.

On returning from Arlington he remained in his study for two hours reading the official text of the German note. He dined with his daughter, Miss Margaret Wilson and his cousin, Miss Helen Woodrow Bones. After a short ride tonight he returned to his work, mapping plans for the all-important cabinet meeting for tomorrow.

Just what the president will propose to his cabinet tomorrow was a matter of wide conjecture tonight in official and diplomatic quarters. There was a noticeable confidence, however, that Germany's failing to yield in principle or fact to the American point of view, the president would suggest a course following logically the strong expressions in the note of May 23d. Some of those familiar with the position of high officials said the note to be sent by the United States probably would be very brief and would be dispatched by Thursday or before the end of the present week. The German government's request of an agreement of the facts—as to whether the Lusitania was armed or unarmed and whether the vessel's owners violated American law by taking passengers on ships carrying munitions of war—was said to be answered to the effect that the Lusitania carried no guns and that it is not a violation of the federal statutes to carry small arms and ammunition on passenger ships. Reiterating that the Lusitania, therefore was a peaceful merchantman, entitled to the right of visit and search and the transfer of her passengers and crew to places of safety previous to any attempt to destroy any contraband of war aboard her in accordance with prize law it is believed, the United States will insist upon a disavowal of such acts and a guarantee that German submarine warfare will be conducted in the future along humane lines, assuring Americans of the safety of their lives and their ships on the high seas.

Proposals on the part of Germany to retract the argument with affidavits alleged to be in the possession of German embassy here to prove that the Lusitania carried guns will not be considered, in view of official knowledge here that the ship was unarmed. Moreover, the government is expected to point out that during the present discussion the American steamer Nebraska has been torpedoed by a German submarine. The admission of the German admiralty, announced officially today in a report from Ambassador Gerard, that the commander of the submarine which torpedoed the Gulfight did "not notice the American flag on the Gulfight until after he had fired the torpedo is another circumstance to which it was thought probable that the United States would advert in the second note to Germany as proof of the dangers to which American ships were subjected by the reckless methods of German submarine commanders.

Comment on Conference.

The conference between the president and Count Bernstorff, which will take place in the blue room of the white house at noon on Wednesday after the note will have been prepared, was the subject of much comment tonight. The ambassador himself would not say what his purpose was, but from well formed sources it was learned that he asked for the interview of his own initiative, without instructions from his government and that he wishes to impress the president with his desire to do everything possible to avoid a rupture in friendly relations between Germany and the United States. The ambassador has had great difficulty in communicating with his foreign office as the cables are in possession of the allies and some of his friends state that his efforts to induce the German government to send a conciliatory answer to the American note of May 13th failed largely on that account. Embassy officials did not talk for publication but there was a distinct disappointment here at the character of the German reply.

RUSSIANS ASSERT THEY HAVE TAKEN OFFENSIVELONDON BELIEVES ANOTHER MIGHTY
GERMAN EFFORT HAS EXPENDED

Fate of Przemyśl Still Uncertain—Italy Retaliates for the Austrian Air and Naval Raids Along Coast—German Submarines Extraordinarily Active.

London, May 31.—(10:35 p. m.)—The great battle on the San, to which the Russians fell back after retreating over half of Galicia still rages, but the Russians asserted that they have assumed the offensive. This statement is taken in London to mean that another mighty German effort has expended itself.

Though the fate of Przemyśl is still uncertain it is contended in allied circles that the Austro-Germans have failed of their purpose to crush the Russians in Galicia and that their rush forward, costing as it did, thousands of lives, has fallen short, just as did the repeated thrusts at Warsaw and Calais.

Claim No Noteworthy Advance. The official statement issued tonight by the Austrian war office makes no claim of any noteworthy advances in the east, dismissing the Przemyśl region with the brief declaration that "the fighting continues" and asserting there has been no serious engagements elsewhere on the eastern front.

The Russians on the other hand claim victories virtually along the entire front, especially beyond the Dniester, where they say they have taken seven thousand prisoners.

In the west neither side has done much of late, although the French continue gnawing around Arras and there has been hard fighting along the Yser.

Italians Bombard Pola. Italy has retaliated for the Austrian air and naval raids along her east coast by bombarding Pola, an Austrian naval base, from a dirigible, while Italian destroyers have made a dash on Montefiore, doing considerable damage to Austrian shipping and getting away unscathed.

German submarines have been extraordinarily active, the news tonight adding one more neutral vessel to the growing list of victims. This was the Danish steamer Soborg, which was sunk forty miles north-east of the Tyne. All hands were rescued.

The English press is following the German and American exchanges on the Lusitania tragedy with the keenest interest and there is much speculation as to the probably American action.

DANISH STEAMER SOBORG IS TORPEDOED IN ENGLISH CHANNEL

LONDON, May 31.—(8:12 p. m.)—The Danish steamer Soborg has been sunk in the English channel by a German submarine according to an announcement made by Lloyd's agency. The members of the crew were saved.

The Soborg was built at Sunderland in 1899 and was of 1,333 tons net register. The vessel was 286 feet long, 43 feet beam and 19 feet deep. She sailed from Baltimore on her last eastern trip across the Atlantic on April 6th, when she was bound for Kirkwall and Aarhus.

TO UNDERTAKE CONSTRUCTION OF RIVER TERMINALS THIS YEAR

Program of Association Includes Canvass of River Terminal Possibilities of Every Town in the Mississippi Valley.

ST. LOUIS, May 31.—The construction of river terminals will be undertaken at least fifteen towns in the Mississippi valley during the present year. This was indicated in reports received here today by A. O. Eberhart, former governor of Minnesota, who today was chosen president of the newly organized River Terminal association. Other officers elected were: secretary, C. F. Perry, Quincy, Ill., and vice-presidents, Irving Norwood, Davenport, Iowa; J. E. Smith, St. Louis; J. W. Fall, Memphis, Tenn.; Walter S. Dickey, Kansas City and J. H. Rosenberger, Evansville, Ind.

The program for the ensuing year agreed upon by the organizers of the permanent association includes a canvass of every river town in the Mississippi valley.

COFFEY STOPS JIM FLYNN.

New York, May 31.—Jim Coffey the Dublin giant, stopped Jim Flynn, the Pueblo fireman, in the ninth round of their ten round match at the Brighton Beach race track tonight.

Flynn was badly beaten and bleeding from the nose and mouth but still on his feet when his seconds threw the sponge into the ring in the middle of the ninth round. From the seventh round Flynn had been fighting gamely with one hand.

SHELL SUBMARINE SHELTER

London, June 1.—(3:05 a. m.)—A despatch to the Times from Mytlened Sunday says: "An enemy submarine shelter has been discovered in the vicinity of Alval, on the west coast of Asia Minor, to which place British warships proceeded today. Sixty shots have since been heard coming from that vicinity, leading to the belief that useful work has been accomplished."

War News Summarized

The heavy reinforcements which have been coming to the support of the closely pressed Russians in middle Galicia apparently are making themselves felt, as the latest reports from the Russian war office declare that the battle on the San river is developing in favor of the Russian troops. The fortress of Przemyśl, now held by the Russians has been the object of an Austro-German enveloping movement for some weeks past and against the completion of a circle the Russian commanders have been striving.

A strong offensive has been undertaken by the Russians on various fronts in the Dniester region they report the capture of seven thousand prisoners and nearly nineteen thousand between the river Pilica and the upper Vistula in the period from May 12th to May 24th.

The fighting in the western war zone during the last day or two has been of minor importance.

The Italian invasion of Trent is proceeding steadily and reports from the frontier say that the group of fortifications commanding the passes leading to the vast entrenched camp, which has its center at Trent, have been occupied by Italian troops.

There are indications of an air raid of possibly large proportions by Zeppelin dirigibles on London in the near future. The British official press bureau in a late announcement says Zeppelins are reported to have been seen near Ramsgate and Brentwood and in certain outlying districts of London. At the same time the warning is issued that no statement whatever should be published in the English newspapers dealing with places in the neighborhood of London reached by aircraft, except such information as the admiralty would issue.

According to advices from Washington, the American government probably will despatch a brief note to Berlin in response to Germany's reply to the American demands in connection with the sinking of the Lusitania before the end of the week which will leave no doubt as to the country's purpose.

The German government has officially notified the American ambassador at Berlin that the American steamer Gulfight torpedoed in the English channel on May 1st, was mistaken for a British vessel.

Although recent reports from Constantinople have favored the Turkish troops in the operations on Gallipoli peninsula the British war office announces that in a furious engagement of recent date the Turkish casualties numbered 2,000 while the allies lost only 300.

An Italian dirigible has dropped bombs on the Austrian naval base of Pola, the arsenal, according to the report of the Italian ministry of marine being set on fire.

London, June 1.—(1:50 a. m.)—In their comment on the German reply to the United States government the morning newspapers take the view that Germany is seeking to gain time by involving the United States in a diplomatic controversy. They contend that almost all the allegations made in Germany's defense are false.

The Daily Mail considers that a situation of real gravity has arisen between Germany and the United States.

"Germany's reply," says the Daily Mail, "shows a complete failure to understand the temper of the American people or to meet the American case. A more sneering or contemptuous reply or a flatter refusal to take the American government seriously could hardly be imagined. Unless Wilson is not a man to tolerate the sophistries with which the sages of Wilhelmstrasse seek to avoid giving a plain answer to his plain question."

The Daily News in an editorial, thinks that the grounds on which Germany seeks to justify the sinking of the Lusitania are mere impertinences and like other newspapers declares the case of the steamer Megantha proves the allegation that the Lusitania was carrying troops or munitions had nothing whatever to do with her being sunk.

POSSIBILITY OF UNION IS DEFINITELY ELIMINATED

Loveland, Colo., May 31.—The possibility of uniting at this time with other churches of the Presbyterian doctrine was definitely eliminated today by the general assembly of the United Presbyterian church when the report of the committee on bills and overtures was adopted.

CHILE SENDS FORMAL PROTEST.

Santiago de Chile, May 31.—At the opening of the chamber of deputies today Foreign Minister Lira in a note to President Luceo stated that the Chilean government had sent a formal note of protest to the European belligerents who had infringed the neutrality of Chile.

STATE TO APPROPRIATE
FORTY-FOUR MILLIONSCHAIRMEN OF HOUSE AND SENATE
COMMITTEES MAKE ESTIMATE

Five Million Dollar Increase Over Appropriations by Last Legislature—Omnibus Bill Carrying $3,000,000 to be Introduced Today.

Springfield, Ill., May 31.—Appropriations totalling $44,000,000, or five million dollars more than were made by the last legislature, will be passed by the present general assembly according to estimates made today by the chairmen of the house and senate appropriation committees. Of this increase approximately $3,000,000 will be contained in the omnibus appropriation bill which will be introduced in the house tomorrow; the appropriation for the university of Illinois was increased $500,000 over two years ago and the remainder of the increase was contained in the $1,500,000 foot and mouth disease appropriations.

This session's omnibus bills will carry approximately $15,250,000 as against $11,992,969.39 two years ago. This year's bill carries $8,000,000 for the common schools as compared with only $6,000,000 two years ago. This is an increase for the common schools of $1,000,000 a year. The bill also carries $600,000 for the state public utilities commission. Two years ago the commission received only $200,000. At that time it had just been organized and was not at such a heavy expense. The new omnibus bill also carries about $750,000 for increases in salaries and for the general increase in the cost of operating the various state departments.

Representative Smejkal, chairman house appropriations, hopes to have the omnibus bill voted on by the house this week and sent to the senate. Speaker Shanahan announced tonight that the Chicago home rule bill and the McGloin bill limiting freight trains to fifty cars probably will be considered tomorrow. The home rule bill, amended to include every city and town in the state is on final passage and the fifty car bill is on second reading. The senate expects to pass bills originating in that body tomorrow.

MISSOURI RIVER THREATENS TO ENGULF PORTION OF NEW HAVEN

Swollen Condition of Rivers is Indirect Cause of Two Drownings at St. Louis—Columbia, Mo., Reports Loss of Thousands of Dollars Worth of Livestock.

St. Louis, Mo., May 31.—The swollen conditions of the Mississippi and Meramec rivers was the indirect cause of two drownings here today while from New Haven, Mo., came the report that the Missouri river threatens to engulf the entire business section of that city.

Mrs. Otto F. Webber saved her husband and one son from drowning in the Meramec river today only to see their youngest son, Freddie, aged three years, swallowed up by the raging stream. A canoe in which the family were enjoying an outing had capsized.

Toney Orlando, while watching the flood debris floating down the Mississippi, fell from a moored barge and was drowned. Several hours later his father was restrained from committing suicide at the scene of the boy's death. The shifting of the Missouri channel at New Haven has produced a giant eddy which rapidly is approaching the business district. Today alone the river spread more than 100 feet, undermining several houses which are on the verge of toppling into the stream. Columbia, Mo., reports the loss of thousands of dollars' worth of livestock in the flooded rivers of Boone county.

MAKE FURTHER DENIAL OF FAMINE
CONDITIONS IN SOUTHERN MEXICO

Message From Vera Cruz to Carranza Press Bureau in El Paso Describes Condition.

El Paso, Tex., May 31.—A further denial of the famine conditions in southern Mexico was made today through the Carranza press bureau here. The condition was described in a message from Vera Cruz in part as follows: "Scarcity of food, which is not serious except at Mexico City where the Zapata troops have been unable to cope with the situation. Carranza is not prepared to alleviate conditions. Not a single case of death from starvation has been reported in the entire country. This year's crop will be below normal."

"In states where conditions are worst, constitutional forces are contributing corn and flour and selling it at cost price. It is false that there is any possibility of famine."

TO EMPLOY MORE WOMEN.

Barrow, Eng., May 31.—(10:55 p. m.)—Women will play an increasing important part in supplying the huge demands of the British army for shells. At the Vickers Sons & Maxime works, 600 women hands employed in the manufacture of munitions have given such satisfaction that the firm has decided immediately to employ an additional thousand.

For the accommodation of these women, buildings are being prepared.

COMPLETE HEARING OF FRANK'S APPLICATIONEXPECT RECOMMENDATION OF PRIS-ON COMMISSION WITHIN 10 DAYS

Letter Written a Few Months Before His Death by Judge Roan in Which he Sought Clemency for Prisoner and Statement by Mrs. Frank are Principal Features of Proceedings.

Atlanta, Ga., May 31.—Hearing of Leo M. Frank's application for commutation of his death sentence to life imprisonment was completed here late today by the state prison commission. The commission's recommendation probably will be transmitted within the next ten days to the governor. No opposition was present.

Present Judge Roan's Letter. Principal features of the proceedings which began this morning consisted of a letter written a few months before his death by Judge L. S. Roan, who presided at Frank's trial, in which he sought clemency for the prisoner; and a statement by Mrs. Frank describing her husband's actions on the night after Mary Phagan's murder and denying rumors of an estrangement between her, self and Frank.

Judge Roan in his letter stated that at the proper time he would ask the governor to commute Frank's sentence to life imprisonment, that after many months of deliberation he still was uncertain of the prisoner's guilt and that "it is possible I showed undue deference to the opinion of the jury when I allowed their verdict to stand."

Production of Judge Roan's letter, Frank's counsel stated, obviated the necessity of extended argument.

Frank did not attend the proceedings but his wife was present throughout.

Several Make Oral Pleas. W. M. Howard, who conducted Frank's application, submitted court records, petitions from legislatures and societies and letters from prominent lawyers, jurists and others.

Several well known Georgia lawyers and judges made oral pleas in Frank's behalf and arguments were presented by former Governor Foss of Massachusetts, heading a delegation of the Independent Order of Sons of Israel; John M. O'Connor, chief justice of the criminal court of Cook county, Illinois, representing the Chicago Frank committee; Mrs. Mary Delaney Fisher of Chicago, representing 200,000 women from all over the country, whose petition she presented; and others.

Mr. Howard offered in evidence an analysis of the court's "notes" which played an important part in the trial. This analysis Mr. Howard declared was introduced to show that James Conley, who is serving a prison sentence as accessory after the murder, "concealed and wrote the notes. Conley's testimony said Frank dictated the notes."

CLARK OPTIMISTIC REGARDING THE OUTCOME OF QUESTIONS

KANSAS CITY, May 31.—Speaker Champ Clark is optimistic concerning the outcome of the international questions.

Speaker Clark was here tonight on his way to Edmund, Okla., to deliver an address at a college commencement.

"It is an ugly and aggravating situation but hitherto we have been aided by use of diplomacy and good sense to pull out of situations as ugly and as aggravating as the present one and without the loss of honor, prestige and without war," said Mr. Clark.

ERUPTION DOES LITTLE DAMAGE

Redding, Cal., May 31.—Lassen Peak's ninety ninth eruption which began yesterday and manifested itself today only as a small column of smoke did practically no damage in Hat Creek and Lost Creek valleys and but little elsewhere, according to reports received here late today from eastern Shasta county. Most of the ashes and mud went to the northeast and did not reach the settlements.

All persons who were on the mountains when the eruption began are said to have been accounted for.

THINKS REPLY INCONCLUSIVE.

New Haven, May 31.—Former President William Howard Taft when asked tonight to comment upon the German reply to the American note, said: "I think the reply of the German government is irresponsible and inconclusive."

EULOGIZE SOLDIER
AND SAILOR DEADImpressive Exercises Are Held at Arlington National Cemetery

WILSON GIVES ADDRESS

President Avoids Any Direct Reference to Problems Now Confronting the United States

BRYAN SPEAKS TO VETERANS

WASHINGTON, May 31.—Eulogies of America's soldier and sailor dead were voiced here today by President Wilson, Secretary Bryan, Secretary Daniels and Gov. Willis of Ohio, at impressive Memorial Day exercises in Arlington National cemetery. Large crowds seized upon every opportunity to show that the present international situation was uppermost in their minds.

Avoids Reference to Problems. President Wilson, cheered on his arrival and departure and during his address, carefully avoided any direct reference to problems now facing the United States. He was enthusiastically applauded when he declared that "greater days lie before this nation than it has ever yet seen and the solemn consciousness of those who bear office in this time, is that they must make their best endeavor to embody in what they do and say the best things in the United States."

Gov. Willis evoked applause when he said "the president of the United States is making a successful effort to keep us out of the broils of Europe," and added "now is the time to keep cool, think carefully and stand by the president. He and his cabinet know vastly more of our delicate relations with European belligerents than the rest of us can possibly know; let us hold up our hands in the patriotic effort he is making in this crisis."

The president sat in the midst of veterans of two wars during the exercises and uttered an audible "amen" at the conclusion of an invocation by Bishop Earl Cranston of Washington who prayed that the United States might be led aright in the present crisis. The president spoke as follows:

Should Look Ahead. "I have not come here today to deliver an address, but merely reverently to take part in expressing the sentiment of this impressive day. It is necessarily a day of reminiscences. Reminiscence is not always a profitable exercise. It generally belongs to those, appropriately to those only who have left the active stage of life and have nothing to think about except things that are gone and dead. It does not behoove a nation to walk with its eyes over its shoulder. Its business is constantly in the years that lie ahead of it and in the present that challenges it to the display of its power. But here are reminiscences which are stimulating and wholesome and among those reminiscences are chiefly to be ranked the recollections of days of heroism, days when great nations found it possible to express the best that was in them by the ardent exercise of every power that was in them."

"That is what gives dignity to a day like this. It is not a day of regret; it is not a day of weakening memory. It is a day of stimulation. But, my friends, these stimulating memories we are some times apt to minimize because we do not see that full significance of them, we are constantly speaking of the great war of which we think today as a day of war which saved the union and it did indeed save the union, but it was a war that did a great deal more than that. It created in this country what had never existed before—a national consciousness. It was not the salvation of the union, it was the re-birth of the union. It was the time when America for the first time realized its unity and saw the vision of its united destiny."

Greater Days Before Nation. "The solemn lesson of these memories for us is not that we must be ready to save the union again, for there are none among us who threaten its life but that we must see to it that the unity then realized, the vision then seen, is exemplified in us and the things that we do. Because there is no stimulation in any lesson unless it be the stimulation to duty. There is no stimulation in any occasion if it be merely the pleasure of recollection; it must also be the ardor and courage of hope. Greater days lie before this nation than it has ever seen; and the solemn consciousness of those who bear office in this time is that they must make their best endeavor to embody in what they do and say the best things in the United States."

"It does not do to talk too much about one's self and I do not think that it is wholesome for the United

GERMAN NAVAL EXPERT APPROVES THE TONE OF GERMANY'S ANSWER

BERLIN, May 31, via London, June 1.—(3:02 a. m.)—Captain Persius, the naval expert of the Berliner Tageblatt, in an article today expresses thorough approval of the tone of Germany's reply to the United States government concerning Germany's submarine warfare. The reply, says Captain Persius, while completely friendly, leaves no doubt of Germany's firm determination to continue her submarine warfare unless Great Britain returns to the principles of the London declaration.

He places the American government on the defensive to answer for the "criminal light-mindedness" which allowed its citizens to sail on a steamer carrying ammunition and exposed to the attacks of German submarines.

ITALIAN KING TO TAKE ACTIVE PART IN WAR

The statement made by Commissioner Martin of certain changes in his department which will result in a yearly saving of $2440 will strike the public as a proper movement as will the statement that Mr. Cox will serve as the head of the street department. Economy in the city service is needed and where this can be secured without interfering with efficiency it is to be commended. If the present council can with passing time find other means of cutting expenses without curtailment of proper service and further can find means for additional revenue they will be well on the road toward better city financial conditions.

While announcement has not been made of the complete list of police department appointees, the chief has been named and he is George P. Davis. For a goodly number of years Mr. Davis has held that position and he has given certain evidence that he is thoroughly qualified for the important work. He is posted on the local situation, knows the conditions and the people, believes thoroughly in rigid law enforcement and is thus in thorough accord with the ideals of the present administration for the cleanest city possible. His appointment is a deserved recognition of qualification.

Eyes of the World on U. S.
The eyes of the world are on the United States, even though there is a great war raging in Europe, and the responsibility and burden of civilization rests with this country, according to Myron T. Herrick of Cleveland, former governor of Ohio and former ambassador to France.

Herrick urged in a speech recently, that the United States be adequately equipped with armament to defend ourselves and take care of an increase in our commerce, which he said would be a result of the European war.

As has been stated, "It would be indiscreet to burglarize a neighbor with your own front door unbarred," he said, "and so it will be with this country when we have added to our commerce. He urged that we, therefore, take care of our navy and enlarge it."

"The torchlight of civilization has been handed by Europe to us, and we are now carrying it, whether or no."

The United States, he said, never before in history occupied so precarious a position as now. He said that we are placed in a position relative to fifty years ahead of time, and will soon be called on to do things that would not have been necessary for fifty years hence, had not the European war started.

"It is all right to talk of this country obtaining the greater part of trade now enjoyed by Europe," continued Herrick, "but we must be prepared on every hand to care for this volume of business held by Europe, and which has made that continent so powerful, and so influential a factor in the world's commerce."

The Legislature's Work.

A writer in The New Republic, commenting upon the adjournment of the New York legislature, is reminded that when Mrs. Wiggs talked about the much lamented Mrs. Wiggs and started to enumerate his virtues, about all she could think of was that he wrote a good hand. So the Republic paragrapher suggests that about all the encomium that can be given the New York legislature is because no new law especially vicious can be charged to the last session.

It is very much to be hoped that when the record of the present Illinois general assembly is written that this same comment will not be applicable. In fact, it is certain now that the present legislature has passed several important measures which can be accounted as in the interest of the people as a whole. It is still the intention to adjourn the legislature before the middle of June and therefore a great deal of work must necessarily yet be done but indications are that there will not be the final rush which has characterized some previous sessions. This is particularly due to the fact that considerable important work has already been done and partially because a large number of important measures have been killed or allowed to die by the wayside. It is recorded that at least forty proposed laws, some of which have been advocated by influential reform organizations, have thus far been allowed to perish.

Germany Evades the Issue.

Again the president of the United States has been called upon to exercise a restraint which it is far more difficult to maintain than a negligent or threatening attitude. The German reply to the U. S. has demanded satisfaction for the sinking of the Lusitania and definite assurance that there shall be an end of such acts and safety for neutrals upon the sea has been received. The main points in the U. S. note have been dexterously side stepped and the German government shows a disposition to quibble over technical points which from the U. S. viewpoint have nothing to do with the questions of broad humanity which formed the ground work for the note.

The German reply coming after two weeks of strained waiting, where in this country patiently looked forward to the receipt of a note friendly and conciliatory in tone, is a distinct disappointment. In Washington the understanding is that the president while he feels the gravity of the situation, will not waver and not later than Thursday will have framed a brief reply to Germany, brushing aside the technical points made and emphasizing again that this government is seriously in earnest in the statement that Germany is to be held to "strict accountability" and will brook no further delay in coming to a direct understanding on the matter.

Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador is to have an audience with the president tomorrow but it is not believed in Washington that anything special will develop from the interview so far as relieving the present situation is concerned. It is conceded however that the ambassador was disappointed in the reply from his government and it is believed that because of interrupted cable communication with Berlin that he has not been able to make Germany understand fully the feeling that exists in this country.

Meanwhile President Wilson is receiving expressions of confidence and support from all parts of the country and he knows that the people are ready for him to summon the great strength of this country to his aid in enforcing the demands of the United States if the need arise.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS.

Portland, Ore.—The biennial council of the General Federation of Women's Clubs will open here tonight. Sessions will be held tomorrow, Wednesday and Thursday. The City of Roses will give a rousing welcome to the visitors. Governor Withycombe, Mayor Albee of Portland, Mrs. Sarah A. Evans, president of the Oregon State Federation, and other speakers are on the program for the reception tonight. The regular sessions open tomorrow, with Mrs. Percy Pennington, president of the General Federation, presiding. A conference of state presidents will take place, also one of the state secretaries. Among the features of the biennial is the presentation of the morality play "Everywoman's Road," by Prof. Josephine Hammond of Reed college, Portland. Another feature is a session on peace, at which Dr. David Starr Jordan will be the principal orator. Mrs. Pennington declares that the important work of the hour for women's club is that for the immigrant and the education of the immigrant mother in the care of children. She plans to visit the women's club of Alaska before returning to her home in Texas.

Pittsburg.—The "suffrage engagement" is the latest social fad in Pennsylvania. Miss Eliza J. Kennedy, a prominent suffrage leader of this city is engaged to wed R. Templeton Smith. Her father at a suffrage meeting announced the engagement, and Mr. Smith declared it was the best speech of the evening. The wedding will take place after the November election, when the votes for women come before the voters of this state.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y.—Miss Elizabeth Rensen Van Brunt, the prettiest girl in Vassar, will be the marshal in the commencement exercises in June. Miss Van Brunt is a Brooklyn girl. She bears her honors lightly, and is one of the most popular girls to be graduated this year at Vassar.

New York.—New Yorkers who love thrills are awaiting the appearance of Miss Catherine Stinson, the nineteen-year-old aviator of San Antonio who has announced she will undertake a flight from New York to San Francisco. When she gets her 300-horse-power aeroplane ready, a rousing send-off is awaiting her. Meanwhile it is whispered that the suffragists are rounding her up.

Chicago.—Women judges and clerks of election will be retained in office in Illinois, and will serve in the June judicial election polls, according to County Judge Seely. It had been contended that women could not be employed at elections for filling offices on which they had no vote. The registration of women voters is expected to be large in this state next year, because for the first time they will vote in the presidential primaries.

Richmond, Va.—Mrs. Gertrude Buckner Wall, leader of Richmond society, will be official chaperone for the sponsors and maids of honor from the various southern states at the Confederate Reunion which opens here tomorrow. Before marriage she was the beautiful Louise Montmillin of Lexington, Ky., and is a near relative of General Genett H. Young, of Louisville, General Commander of the United Confederate Veterans. Among the widows of Confederate Generals who are expected here for the reunion are: Mrs. J. E. B. Stuart, Mrs. George Pickens, Mrs. A. P. Hill, Mrs. W. H. F. Lee and Mrs. Fitzhugh Lee. Miss Mary Curtis Lee, daughter of Gen. Robert E. Lee is also expected.

Philadelphia.—The 65th anniversary and annual commencement exercises of the women's Medical College of Pennsylvania will be held on Wednesday. Women physicians from all parts of America will attend. About 30 young women doctors will be graduated. Among the speakers will be Mrs. Whitford Lewis, president of the Board of Corporators and Dr. Clara Marshall, dean of the college. Scientific papers will be read by Dr. Martha Tracy and Dr. Anna Grove Richardson.

Battle Creek, Mich.—Girls from fifteen states will be instructed in the lore of the campfire at the Guardians' Convention of the Camp Fire Girls to open here on Thursday. Mrs. Charlotte Gulek of New York, founder of the Camp Fire Girls, will take charge of the meeting.

ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE STUDENTS IN CLOSING CONCERT

Program Given Before a Large Audience in Music Hall Last Night.

—Mr. Stearns.

The closing concert of the music department of the Woman's college was given last night before a large audience. The program consisted of organ, violin, voice and piano numbers, and was well interpreted, reflected much credit upon those taking part. The audience was most appreciative and sincere in their applause.

(Orchestral parts on second piano)

—Mr. Stearns.
Adieu notre petite table; Le marche sur tous les chemins, from Manon by Massenet—Ima Berryman.

Nocturne in E minor—Chopin; The Nightingale—Alabietz—Edith Hilberby.

Concerto in A minor—J. B. Accorlay—Eloise Capps.
Concerto in A minor (first movement)—Grieg—Louise Savage.
(Orchestral parts on second piano)

—Mr. Stearns.

MORTUARY

Jackson.

Miss Kate Dabb and S. W. Babo received information yesterday of the death of their cousin, Louis Jackson, at Oakland, California. Mr. Jackson formerly lived in this community and was a son of James and Miranda Jackson. He moved from this community about twenty-five years ago to Iowa City, where he was a practicing attorney for some time. Subsequently Denver was his home and later the family moved to Oakland, where in addition to the practice of law Mr. Jackson became a real estate operator on an extensive scale. Just a year or two prior to his death he had completed a beautiful home on a thirty-acre estate near Oakland. The deceased was a member of the Presbyterian church and a man who was active in good works. He was past seventy years of age and is survived by his wife and one son. He also leaves a brother, Charles Jackson, and a half-brother, James Jackson, both of Blackfoot, Idaho, and the following sisters: Mrs. Alice Bradley of Topeka, Kan.; Mrs. Charles Hamilton of Eureka, Kan., and Mrs. J. B. Higdon of St. Louis.

Gibbons.

Mrs. Mary J. Gibbons, wife of Lester L. Gibbons, formerly of this city, died recently at Oldbridge, N. J. The deceased was born in Jacksonville, Feb. 4, 1855, and lived in this community until a few years since when she went east to be with her children. Mrs. Gibbons' death resulted from heart disease. She was a member of the Baptist church and was associated with that denomination both here and in the east. She is survived by the following sons and daughters: Frank J. of Alton; Carl L. of New York City; Harold C. of Jersey City; Mrs. Mabel E. Wade of Oldbridge, with whom she made her home; Mrs. Emma S. Rohmer of Oldbridge, and Mrs. Ina M. Towle, of Hatfield, Porto Rico.

Hines.

Mrs. Jennie McEvers of 341 East College street has received word of the death of Mrs. Margaret Hines, who passed away in Chicago at the home of her daughter. She was one of Jacksonville's oldest settlers and had lived here 56 years.

She was born in County Tipperary, Ireland in 1829 and was 86 years of age. She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Mary Winters of Chicago and two granddaughters. She has many friends here who will regret to learn of her death.

The remains will be brought to this city for burial arriving here at 4:45 o'clock this morning and they will be taken to the home of Miss Mary Flynn, 820 E. Reesley avenue. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

PASSENGER AUTO TRUCK GOES OVER EMBANKMENT; SIX ARE KILLED

DALLAS, Texas, May 31.—Six persons, three of them children, were killed and nineteen more or less seriously injured late tonight when a large passenger auto truck fell over a high embankment about five miles east of Dallas.

The party was returning from an entertainment at an orphan home east of the city and the driver ran close to the edge of the road while turning aside to allow an automobile to pass.

The dead are: Faith Culp, 14 years old, Frances Payne, 22, Phoebe Ballinger, 7, Robert Corpening, 11, Roscoe Hamilton, 24, Alex McKay, 27.

EXTEND TRIBUTE TO LUDLOW VICTIMS
Tribute, Colo., May 31.—With a parade in which several hundred members of trades unions and the United Mine Workers of America took part, labor extended a memorial day tribute to the victims of the Ludlow disaster of April 20th, 1914.

When twenty-one persons lost their lives in the battle and in the fire that destroyed the tent colony. At the Catholic cemetery the graves of the Ludlow victims were decorated with flowers.

WINCHESTER

The funeral of Samuel Cooper was conducted Monday morning at 10 o'clock from the family residence in charge of Rev. C. W. Caseley. Music was furnished by Mrs. Carl Neat, Miss Grace Thompson, Edward Markille and George Cooling. The flowers were cared for by friends. The bearers were Melvin McLaughlin, Charlie Carlton, Elmer Davis, Leo McLaughlin and Leonard Violett. Burial was made in the Winchester cemetery.

Herbert Richards of Jacksonville spent Sunday with his cousin Harold Dill.

Elmer Coultas went to St. Louis Saturday to visit with relatives.

Mrs. Frank Brienbrauer returned from St. Louis Sunday where she visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Coats.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hamilton and daughter returned Sunday from a pleasant visit in Springfield.

Mrs. Thomas Richardson and daughter Miss Rhea left last night for Milw. Wyoming, to visit with relatives.

Miss Jessie Burrows left today for Salt Lake City for an extended visit with her uncle, Dr. Arthur Burrows.

Miss Anna Miner who has been visiting at the home of Dr. James Miner will leave today for Mattoon and from there will go to Baltimore, Maryland.

There was a large crowd in attendance at the Memorial exercises held in the M. E. church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and the program as formerly announced was followed out.

Rev. J. F. Rogers of the Presbyterian church preached his farewell sermon Sunday night. Rev. David H. Toomey took charge of the services and short talks were made by Rev. E. G. Prewitt and Rev. C. W.

ZEPPELINS ARE SEEN IN CERTAIN OUTLYING DISTRICTS OF LONDON

Many Fires Are Reported But They Cannot Be Absolutely Connected With Airship Visits.

London, June 1.—(1:26 a. m.)—The official press bureau issued the following announcement last night: "Zeppelins are reported to have been seen near Ramsgate (on the Kentish coast, 67 miles east-southeast of London) and Brentwood (17 miles east-northeast of London) and in certain outlying districts of London. Many fires are reported but these cannot be absolutely connected with the airship visits.

"Further particulars will be issued as soon as they can be collected and collated."

Prior to giving out the above communication the official press bureau issued a notice reminding the newspapers that in the interest of public safety no statement whatever should be published dealing with places in the neighborhood of London reached by air craft or the course supposed to be taken by them. It was added that an admiralty communication would give all the information which might properly be published.

FORTY DIE WHEN STEAMER BURNS

States to talk too much about itself. I do not want to know what you are today so much as I want to know what you are going to do tomorrow. The only test I know of that is competent to determine what you are is the test of what you do. Let us not think of our characters, let us think of our duties and of the actions that lie before us. I have always maintained that the man who lives to cultivate his own character will result only in cultivating an intolerable prig because his object will be himself. Character, my friends, is a by product. It is produced in the great manufacture of duty. But it is not easy to determine. Duty for a nation is made up of so many complicated elements that no man can determine it. No group of men without wide common counsel can possibly determine what the duty of the day is. That is the strength of a democracy because there daily rises up the great body of a democracy the expression of an untrammelled opinion which seems to fill the air with its suggestions of duty; and those who stand at the head of affairs express it as their duty to endeavor to express in their own actions those things that seem to rise out of the conscience and hope and purpose of the great body of the people themselves.

America Re-born Every Day.

"America, I have said, was re-born by the struggle of the Civil War, but America is re-born every day of her life by the purposes we form, the conceptions we entertain, the hopes that we cherish. We live in our visions. We live in the things that we see. We live and hope abundantly in as we live in the things that we purpose. Let us go away from this place renewed in our devotion to duty and to those ideals which keep a nation young and keep it noble. Keep it young in enterprise and achievement; make it to lead the nations of the world in those things that make for hope and for the benefit of mankind."

At the conclusion of the exercises in the amphitheatre at the cemetery President Wilson was escorted by a regiment of marines to the Maine Memorial Monument, which was unveiled and dedicated in honor of the 264 men who lost their lives when the battleship was sunk 17 years ago in Havana harbor. The monument is the main mast and fighting top of the Maine set in a granite and marble base chiseled in the form of a gun turret. Secretary Daniels, the principal speaker at this ceremony, voiced a tribute to sacrifice, saying it was the one attribute to which everybody paid homage.

Bryan Speaks to Veterans.

Secretary Bryan was the speaker at the exercises held by the Spanish War veterans at the base of the Spanish war monument. He declared that for the last ten months the people had been surprised with accounts of the war in Europe and the sympathies of the people had been aroused as they read of the toll of lives of the newly invented instruments of destruction.

"We are depressed and distressed by the reports of battles," he said, "of skies reddened by the glare of guns and the soil crimsoned by the blood of men, of homes made desolate and of hospitals filled to overflowing, of babies born fatherless while sirens are hurled like worthless rubble in the fields over which the grim reaper has passed."

From the war Secretary Bryan drew the lesson that love is manifested by the willingness of people to make sacrifices. He said that the sacrifice shown by the soldier is shared by the women and children who give up more in war than the man who marches in the ranks.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Tandy are visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. G. M. Wright in Franklin.

The First Butcher

In days of old, when Knight's were bold;
And eggs were high—so we've been told;
A Butcher Man of fearless main,
Besought the King, in hope to gain
Favor expressed in Royal decree,
That would permit him to start a meat-erie.
The King, impressed by his appeal,
Said yes—and ordered a roast of veal.
And this you see—so the story ran,
Was the beginning of Your Butcher Man.

Rent Houses Wanted

There has never been a time when desirable rent houses, $7.50 to $25, were scarcer at Johnston Agency than they are today. Our facilities for securing the right renter for the right house are good. Being the only agency in the city making a specialty of this business, a constant stream of applicants pours through our office. We know what is due to tenants in the way of repairs, and our tenants stay. On the other hand, we collect all rents in advance, and we do not, upon the average, lose a full month's rent upon one house a year.

Landlords—We think you will find it profitable, and save yourselves a great amount of trouble, if you will let us attend to your rentals. We have made a science of it. And we respectfully solicit your business.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Alumnae Members

Enjoy 6 o'clock Dinner.

At 6 o'clock a dinner of five courses was enjoyed by the members of the Alumnae association at the Woman's college Monday night. At the close of the annual meeting the members attended informal receptions in the society halls where they were extended a welcome music, and frappe adding to the pleasure of the hospitality extended.

After the dinner talks were given. Miss Demuth of the college faculty, gave a piano solo in her usual brilliant manner. Miss Inez Freeman gave a group of vocal selections, which is always much appreciated.

Mrs. T. J. Gist of Nebraska, who had been elected as a trustee of the Alumnae association, was introduced by the president, Mrs. T. H. Buckthorpe. She talked on woman's work and her life work in the wider world beyond the halls of her home. She said the home must be the place well ordered and kept sweet and wholesome, but if the mother's concern stops there and did not include all the paths leading into the home and all the roads leading from it, to also make them secure she had failed in the discharge of her duties. Dr. Barker gave a very earnest talk on the college and its meaning to the alumnae.

Mr. and Mrs. Crabtree Give Bridal Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Crabtree gave a dinner Monday night to the Applebee-Wadsworth bridal party at their home on West State street. Covers were laid for sixteen. The dining room table was very artistically decorated for the occasion. In the center of the table was a large lake in which were placed swans and around the edge of the lake was smilax. The flowers in the lake were brides roses and swansonia. Tulle was extended from the chandelier to the table making a very pretty effect. The table favors were white slippers, on which were placed love doves, the slippers being filled with bon-bons. An elegant nine course dinner was faultlessly served and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. Music during the entire time was furnished by Randall's orchestra. The gift of Miss Wadsworth to her attendants were French enamel vanity cases. The gifts of Dr. Applebee to his attendants were gold knives attached to gold chains. To Mrs. Crabtree, Mrs. F. E. Farrell and Miss Mabel Mathews were given corsage bouquets.

The members of the bridal party present were Miss Alice Wadsworth, Dr. Alpha Applebee, Miss Mary Wadsworth, as maid of honor, Miss Nelle Taylor of New Berlin and Miss Mildred Applebee as bridesmaids. Mr. Cleon Bell, best man; Ushers, Mr. Warren Nixon of St. Louis, Dr. A. R. Gregory, Mr. Marcey Osborne and Mr. Earl Epler, Master Leonard Farrell Crabtree will be the ring bearer. Mr. E. E. Crabtree will give the bride away and Mr. Felix E. Farrell will be master of ceremonies.

Applebee-Wadsworth Wedding Tomorrow

The marriage of Miss Alice Wadsworth and Dr. Alpha Bowers Applebee will take place Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in Grace M. E. church. The ceremony will be performed by Dr. Julian S. Wadsworth, of Providence, Rhode Island, an uncle of the bride assisted by Rev. J. W. Miller of Grace M. E. church. A musical program will be given by Mrs. Helen Brown Read with Mr. H. V. Stearns as organist. Guests from away who are expected to attend the wedding are: Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Applebee, parents of the groom, and Mrs. Catherine Applebee, his grandmother, all of Cuba, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Nelson N. Lambert, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. J. Fletcher Purcell, Chicago; Mrs. Nelson Green, Moline; Mrs. Jones Tallul, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Yates and Miss Dorothy Yates, Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Nixon, St. Louis.

MATRIMONIAL

Smith-Surratt.

Ora D. Smith and Miss Gertrude Surratt, both of Chambersburg, were married at 10 o'clock Monday forenoon by the Rev. Myron L. Pontius at the pastor's residence, 413 West College avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Surratt, parents of the bride, accompanied the young people. The groom is a farmer by occupation and Mr. and Mrs. Smith will reside on a farm near Chambersburg.

FUNERALS

Mason.

The funeral of Mrs. Lee Mason was held Sunday forenoon at 10 o'clock from Shiloh M. E. church, in charge of the Rev. H. F. Custis. Burial was made in Arcadia cemetery. The bearers were Irvin Patterson, George Goveia, John Black, James Black, Harry McGhee and William Dodsworth. John Hitchins, Orville Crum, Miss Wilma Crum and Mrs. W. H. Crum furnished the music and Mrs. Lizzie Rudisill, Miss Bertha Mason and Miss Ermetta Mason cared for the flowers. A large number were present and the services as conducted by the minister were most impressive.

GENUINE PIN SEAL HAND BAGS 95c, "HARMON'S."

ATTENDED FUNERAL.

Among those from out of the city who attended the funeral of Marcus Robinson, Jr., yesterday were Mrs. Burgess of Bement, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Albert Robinson of Oak Park, Henry Kirby of Chicago, Miss Ruth Vail of Sherman, Texas, and Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Epler, Beardstown.

ALUMNAE SOCIETY OF WOMAN'S COLLEGE HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

Reports Were Heard From the Various Officers and Routine Business Transacted Including an Election of Officers.

The alumnae Association of the Illinois Woman's college held their annual meeting Monday afternoon at the college. The meeting was in charge of the president, Mrs. T. H. Buckthorpe with Mrs. T. V. Hopper as secretary. The program opened with a piano solo, Polonaise by Mac Dowell, by Miss Jessie Wharton given in splendid style. Miss Emma Burnett gave the address of welcome to the class of 1915. She said in part: "I come as a representative of the alumnae association bearing a message of greeting and good will to the class of 1915. The congratulations extended upon this important event cannot be more full of interest, of pride and of loyalty than those of our Alumnae association. Older sisters, some by many years traveling aside by side, we have ever felt the warmest sympathy and pleasure at the growth of this prosperous institution and do heartily rejoice today in viewing the harvest nobly responding to the efforts of those planted so long ago. Many look upon release from school life as the beginning of pleasure, while others realize that it is but the entrance to broader fields of opportunity. This graduation means to you the passing through a gateway. The wisdom you manifest will not be judged by the fund of knowledge stored away, but in utilizing what you know. Your success will be rated by your ability to make others happy." In well chosen words Miss Helena Munson responded to the address of welcome and briefly outlined what the class of 1915 expected to do for the college.

A summary of the finances of the association was given by the secretary, Mrs. W. A. Fay which showed a neat balance in the treasury. An account of the scholarship fund was given by Mrs. J. N. Ward. There is now a fund of $16,000 and ten students were helped through school the past year through this aid. Mrs. E. C. Lambert, general secretary, gave a report of her work. In part she said "Since the year just closing has allowed little opportunity for work a field our report is derived from the dual relationship which we hold to the board as alumnae, trustee and as alumnae field secretary." Mrs. Lambert told of the work involved in inlisting the co-operation of those who had passed from the walls of the college. She spoke of the seven memorial scholarships, which the association started some eight years ago. She also related of the recent gifts which have been given the college, among them the following: $10,000 from W. F. Jarman, Camargo; Mrs. Ella Yates Orr, class of '67, $2,000; Faithful Shipley Ebey, class of '53, $1,000; Misses Mayfield, class of '70, $1,000; Mrs. Rachel Seegar Wyckoff, '66, $1,000; Mrs. Wychoff's daughter, Dr. Sarah Della Wychoff, '89, $1,000; Mrs. Clarissa Keplinger Rinaker, $1,000; Mrs. Rebecca Wood Metcalf, '58, $1,000.

Mrs. Fred H. Rowe gave a short address on the proceedings of the meeting of the Board of Trustees. A standing vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Geo. Metcalf for the great help and inspiration she had been to the college.

An election of officers was held as follows:

President—Mrs. Paul Thompson.

First vice president—Miss Nelle Taylor.

Second vice president—Mrs. William G. Goebel.

Third vice president—Mrs. F. A. McCarty.

Secretary—Mrs. Fletcher Blackburn.

Treasurer—Mrs. W. A. Fay.

Alumnae trustees—Mrs. Fred Rowe and Mrs. T. J. Gist.

Mrs. T. H. Buckthorpe as retiring president of the society and the other officers are to be commended upon the excellent way the association work was handled during the past year. Following the meeting the members visited the various societies.

MEMORIAL DAY AT JERSEYVILLE

Jerseyville, Ill., May 31.—The annual memorial day services were observed Sunday afternoon under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic and Woman's Relief Corps in Jerseyville. Judge Charles S. White presiding. The invocation was made by the Rev. W. S. Neely, pastor of the First Presbyterian church and the benediction by the Rev. E. T. Corroll, pastor of the First Methodist church.

The address of the afternoon was delivered by Hon. O. E. Tandy of Jacksonville, to a capacity audience in the circuit court room. The program was followed with a procession formed at the courthouse headed by the city band, Grand Army, Relief Corps and citizens who marched to Oak Grove cemetery, where the decoration of soldiers' graves were held.

STATES AMERICANS ARE LEAVING GERMANY

London, June 1—(3:16 a. m.)—"During the past few days a positive exodus of Americans from Germany to Switzerland has been taking place," says the Morning Post's Bernese correspondent. "Many of the arrivals have been residents of Germany for years. They declare that the popular feeling against Americans in some places make it intolerable and unsafe for them to remain."

ORDERS MILITIA TO ASSIST SHERIFF IN QUELLING RIOTS

ENID, Okla., May 31.—Governor Williams today ordered Company K, Oklahoma National Guard, to assist the sheriff's force of Garfield county in quelling riots growing out of the demands of more than 500 men who have been in Enid for nearly a week waiting for work in the harvest fields. An industrial worker of the world from Kansas City was ordered to leave the city tonight. Two hundred men were escorted to the railroad stations, placed upon freight trains and told to leave. More than a hundred others who arrived in the city at the same time were warned to leave at once.

RALPH DePALMA WINS INDIANAPOLIS RACE

TRAVELS AT AN AVERAGE OF 89.84 MILES.

Resta Contests Every Mile of the Way With the Winner and Finishes Only Four Minutes After DePalma—Only Eleven of the Twenty-three Starters Finish.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 31.—Ralph DePalma won the fifth annual 500-mile international sweepstakes race on the Indianapolis motor speedway here today in the remarkable time of five hours, 23 minutes and 55.50 seconds. The victor traveled at an average speed of 89.84 miles and broke the record for the race established in 1914 by Rene Thomas, who finished in six hours, three minutes and 45.9 seconds.

Dario Resta, who was second, contested every mile of the way with the winner and the battle of these two pilots was the feature of the race. Resta never quit trying to head off DePalma and he finished only four minutes after the winner crossed the tape. Resta's time was five hours, 37 minutes and 34.94 seconds. Gil Anderson was third and completed the race in five hours, 42 minutes and 27.57 seconds.

Out of 23 cars that started, eleven finished, of which ten received prize money.

That DePalma's victory was a popular one was shown by the demonstration of the thousands of spectators who rose and cheered wildly as the winner finished his last lap. DePalma drove into his garage immediately after he received the checkered flag which announced his victory and locked the door. His first words were praise for the mechanic who rode by his side during the long grind. Enthusiastic friends burst open the doors of the garage and DePalma became the center of attraction for hundreds of people who fought for a chance to shake his hand.

DePalma drove a consistent race. He never was back of fourth place. He wrested the lead from Resta in the one hundred and seventy-fifth mile. He lost the lead in the three hundred and fifteen mile, when he stopped at the pits, but regained it in the three hundred and thirty-fifth when Resta skidded into the retaining wall and was forced to make a tire change as the result. After that DePalma never was headed although Resta pushed his car to the limit.

DePalma's machine ran perfectly until the beginning of the four hundred and ninety-eighth mile, when it showed signs of faltering. Spectators feared that the car would fall him and he would be robbed of victory as he was in 1912 when with two laps to go his machine broke down and he lost the prizes he had thought as good as won a few minutes before.

"The jinx is broken," he exclaimed when he was hailed as victor today.

This year's race was the first held here in which no person was injured. Although the weather was threatening and the race had been postponed from Saturday a large crowd was on hand to witness the event. The track was ideal for high speed as it was chilly and tires lasted much longer than is usual on a brick course. The winner made two stops for tires and fuel. Speedway officials said tonight that the record probably will stand for years.

Ten drivers divide the $50,000 prize money of which DePalma's share is $20,000. They finished as follows:

Ralph DePalma, Dario Resta, Gil Anderson, Earl Cooper, Tom O'Donnell, Bob Burman, Howard Wilcox, Tom Alley, Hughie Hughes (driving for Billy Carlson) and Noel Van Raalte.

I. W. C. BACCALAUREATE SERVICES ARE HELD AT GRACE CHURCH

Students and Faculty March in a Body to Church—Sermon is Delivered by Rev. Thomas N. Ewing of Springfield.

This year the baccalaureate services of the Illinois Woman's College were in Grace church, Centenary and Brooklyn churches uniting. The services were held in the morning and the large auditorium was well filled with an interesting audience.

The students and faculty formed at the college and marched in a body to the church where they were joined by trustees of the college, former students, alumnae, ministers of the city and visiting ministers and all were ushered into seats set aside for them. The services throughout were in keeping with the importance of the occasion and were fully appreciated by all. The music was especially good and was principally supplied by Mrs. Florence Pierson Hartman and Miss Louise Miller, both of the vocal department of the college of music. Their first song was a duet a selection entitled, "The Day is Done", by Lohr. Mrs. Hartman sang as a solo Kipling's well known poem, "Recessional", with music by De-Koven and both numbers were much enjoyed.

Rev. W. W. Theobald of Brooklyn, who has a daughter in the graduating class, offered the opening prayer and Rev. Thomas Ewing, D. D., pastor of the First Methodist church, in Springfield, delivered the baccalaureate sermon. The theme of the discourse was "Jesus, the Foundation", text 1 Cor. 3:11, "For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ."

"The foundation is the most important part of a building. It is not always in sight, is not always ornamental but if it be insufficient or insecure the whole structure is in danger of falling. The greater the building the more important the foundation. There are flimsy shacks with little foundation; there are house boats which rise and fall with the surface of the water on which they float; there are birds' nests cunningly built in the limbs of trees and shaken by every breeze but the solid building with its good foundation will stand for ages. The most enduring of all structures is the character of man. If right it will endure forever; long after the sands of the desert will have enveloped the mighty pyramids; long after the noblest structures known to man will have perished the human character will still live on forever. How important then that it be well founded and right."

At the close of the able address Dr. Harker delivered the annual address and Rev. John E. McCloud of Oxford, Indiana, conference visitor to the college from the Northwest Indiana conference, pronounced the benediction.

Sunday evening at Centenary church Dr. Ewing preached the annual sermon before the Y. W. C. A. annual sermon before the Y. W. C. A. of the college, Miss Joanna Ogden, president of the society, presided. Rev. E. F. Carroll of Jerseyville, conference visitor to the Woman's college from the Southern Illinois conference, offered prayer. Dr. Harker also took part in the services. Abandoned things was the theme of the evening discourse which was an able effort and deeply interesting.

President Harker in speaking to the graduates said:

"Young women of the class of 1915:

"For twenty-two years I have called the graduating class of the college in this way and have tried in few words to express to them some vital truth which they might remember as a parting personal college message.

"Your college days have been happy days, but it should not be true that they will be your happiest. The coming days, filled as they ought to be with life's responsibilities, should be also increasingly happy, and not the least factor in that happiness will be the memory of these college days with their splendid opportunities and their wealth of helpful friendships and associations.

"Let me begin my final word by again reminding you how much has been given to you. Good measure, pressed down, heaped up, and running over, has been your share. You are great debtors.

"A country, the freest, the noblest the world has ever known, is yours; its institutions, founded at the cost of life and devotion impossible to measure, are yours. Yours has been and still is the love and sacrifice of father and mother, who have lived for you throughout all the years. Your home communities have contributed freely and generously for your earlier education. The founders of the college planned and labored and sacrificed for you, that still greater opportunities might be yours than those afforded by the public schools. Only a comparatively few young women have the advantage of sixteen years of school and college instruction and training which you have had. Teachers and school officers in all these years have given themselves to you in faithful service. All the permanent treasures of the past are yours. You have youth and strength and hope and friends. You have God-given abilities and trained minds. You have not bought these things, they cannot be bought, nor gotten with gold—they have been given to you. They represent 'the manifold grace of God.' 'Freely ye have received.'

What is Expected.

"In view of all this, at the end of your college course, what do we hope for you, and what do we expect of you?"

"One thing above all others—that you will be faithful stewards of the manifold gifts which God has so bountifully bestowed on you. The grace I am urging upon you is faithfulness. Paul says, 'It is required in a steward that a man be found faithful.' Be faithful to the love of parents which has followed you with such solicitude all these days. Be faithful to the interest and devotion of teachers who have given themselves in patience for your development. Be faithful to the college which has watched over you through these years, guiding you out of girlhood into womanhood, making you strong for life's service, and inspiring and encouraging to the loftiest ideals of womanhood. Be faithful to the institutions and ideals of your country. Be faithful to the manifold grace of God.

"I have said that I hope you will be happy in the coming days, happier even than you have yet been. But this is not at all certain, nor is it indispensable.

"Not enjoyment and not sorrow, is our destined end or way."

"It pleased God to make even the Captain of our salvation perfect through suffering, and you may be called to travel a rough and thorny road. Your skies may be clouded, your experiences may be sad and disappointing. That is not yours to determine. Yours is only to be faithful, to be loyal, to be true.

"As we say goodbye to you as you leave the college halls, we all hope your lives will be successful. You have lofty ideals and noble purposes and high hopes and plans for the coming days. We sincerely hope the plans will reach a successful realization. But even this is not all yours to say, nor is it finally necessary or indispensable. The heroes of the 11th chapter of Hebrews were none of them wholly successful. They all died before realizing their ideals and ambitions. It is not necessary that you succeed, but it is necessary that you should be faithful.

THE HELPLESS

The man who's always waiting for help to do his task, down to the dump goes skating, where dread whangdoodles bask. "I've asked my neighbors, Perkins," says helpless Willum Weed, "to help me plant my gherkins, and sow my nutmeg seed, and when he comes, you betcher, we'll make things hum around; and then I'll ask Bill Fletcher to come around and roll the ground." He waits and keeps on waiting, nor tries to make thing hum, but spends his time berating the friends who do not come. He sits and scolds and whistles, and waits, and never stirs, while fields grow up to thistles and juicy cockle-burs. He'll wait, and keep awaiting the friend who never comes, he'll sit, all effort hating, a twiddling of his thumbs, until to end the circus, a cart comes to the gate, to take him to the workus, where other paupers wait. PIRATES TAKE TWO GAMES FROM CHICAGO

CUBS ARE SHUT OUT IN BOTH CONTESTS.

Afternoon Contest is a Duel Between Cheney and Mammaux—Cheney Allows Pirates Only Two Hits, But Loses Game in Second.

Pittsburgh, May 31.—Chicago lost both games to Pittsburgh today by the same score through the wildness of its pitchers. In the morning game Lavender passed three men in the third inning and hit a fourth, forcing in the only run.

The afternoon contest was a duel between Cheney and Mammaux. Cheney allowed the Pirates only two hits, both made by Carey. He lost his own game in the second inning when he passed Hinchman who went to second on Wagner's out and scored on a wild pitch by Cheney that went to the stand.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS GATHER AT RICHMOND.
Richmond, Va., May 31.—This city is receiving today as its guests the remnants of the Confederate legion, who will open tomorrow the reunion which may be their last national gathering. The event is attracting the veterans who wore the gray, and their descendants for the dedication of the Confederate Memorial institute and the laying of the cornerstone of a monument to General Stonewall Jackson. Joy is intermixed with pathos as the "thin gray line" meets again.

"MORNING GLANCES" (By Gosh)

Cleveland sure had on their hitting clothes Monday taking two top-sided games from the poor lowly Browns.

The Highlanders broke their losing streak by winning a double bill with the Senators the victims.

The Cubs slid back into second place by dropping two hard fought games to the Pirates, while the Phil. lie split the Champs.

Cincinnati and St. Louis were out for blood yesterday, the Reds winning the morning tilt 2 to 1—the second ending in a 4 to 4 tie.

Decoration Day was somewhat a surprise in the baseball world as rain did not interfere with any of the games in the big leagues—ideal weather prevailing every where.

"Pants" Rowland's dashing White Sox still continue to keep their hold on the top round of the ladder. In Pan Johnson's circuit by winning the afternoon game of the double bill from Detroit after the Tigers had copped in the morning.

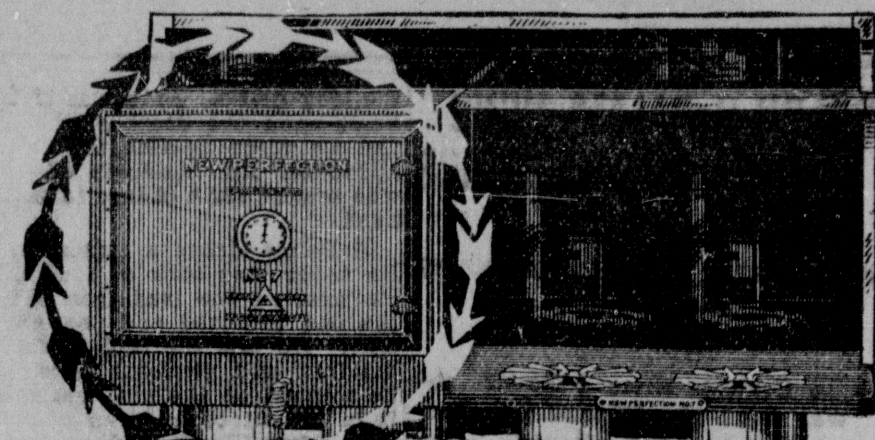

Woodman made a greater atonement of Keyes after he had let an easy one get away.

Dick Wheeler was not slow for the Eagles at third. He made several nice tops and figured in a double.

Happy DeFrates played a great game at third for Franklin. He went clear over in front of the short stop and speared Cannon's short hit. It was big league stuff.

McCollister attempted to hunt in the sixth with White on third and Gary on second. He popped to Wright who doubled Gary at second. Kitter shot the ball to third but there was no need as one man was already down. They had an easy triple play if they had needed it as White was clear across the rubber on the squeeze before Wright caught the ball.

It is seldom that two catchers do better backstopping than did Doyle and Clark Sunday. Both pitchers were lacking in control and made the catchers dig them out of the mud and reach for them time after time. Neither man had a passed ball.

Keeps the Heat in the Oven and Out of the Kitchen

"Fireless" and Range Combined

The secret is in the insulated oven, which seals in the heat just like a fireless cook stove. A turn of the damper does it—changing your range into the best and easiest used "fireless" ever invented. This "fireless" oven is the big, new feature of the NEW PERFECTION, the finest range you can put in your kitchen. Has a cabinet top with a spacious warming shelf and plenty of room behind the burners for keeping food hot.

3 Kinds of Cooking

This insulated oven cooks three ways. You can adjust the flame for the quick kind of quick baking, or the slow, steady kind you need for baking bread and roasting meats. Seal the oven and turn out the flame and it keeps an even, steady heat for six or seven hours—this is your fireless. The insulation keeps the heat in the oven and out of the kitchen—a blessing.

FOR FRANKLIN SUNDAYVisitors Won Game by Score of 7 to 4—DeFrat's Home Run was a Feature.Franklin walloped the Eagles at Nichols Park Sunday to the count of 7 to 4. If the visitors had been playing their regular team there is no telling what would have happened. As it was they had "Hap" De-Frat's playing third base and "Hap" was one of the main factors in the defeat of the locals. He not only played a great game in the field but he trained his heavy guns on White for two hits, one of them bringing home a run. In all Franklin nicked White for ten safeties.Even with this, however, the Eagles should have won. They got to Wright for fourteen safeties but poor work on the bases and inability to hit in the pinches encompassed their defeat.White did his best to win his own game. He whiffed nine and made four hits. All of them were wasted, however, as his fellow workmen could not deliver the necessary hits.
In addition to this Jacksonville played a loose game in the field piling up six errors, most of which were costly.The features of the game was the third base play of DeFrat's and Wheeler, the catching of Clark and Doyle and a running catch by Woodman in center.

How the Runs Were Made.

Jacksonville scored in the first round. After Gary had struck out, McCollister walked and took third on Wheeler's double. Clark squeezed McCollister in. Woodman singled to left center and Wheeler scored.Christopher was out. DeFrat's to Lonergan.Franklin got one to the good in her half of the second round. Doyle was first up and walked. Beerup rolled to White and was out at first.
Doyle taking second. Kitter hit one too hot for White to handle and was safe, sending Doyle to third.
Riggs hit one to center which Woodman muffed and Doyle scored and Kitter went to third and Riggs to second. Topfiff grounded to Arisman who booted the ball and Kitter scored. Riggs going to third. Wright singled and Riggs dented the pan.
Woodman stopped further trouble
by making a great running catch off of Keyes.Franklin added one in her half of the third. DeFrat's singled but was out. Arisman to Gary. Lonergan being safe at first. He stole second and took third on Doyle's safety to short. Beerup singled and Lonergan scored. Doyle taking third. Beer-up was out stealing. Clark to Gary and Kitter struck out.Jacksonville tied it up in her half of the third. Wheeler first up, sin-KAWFEEDS AND WHALES DIVIDE

AT MICHIGAN SANITARIUMFormer Jacksonville Woman Succumbs After a Brief Illness—Spent Winter in California.Word came to friends here Monday morning of the death of Miss Eliza Kent at Battle Creek Sanatorium Saturday night. Miss Kent and Miss Morse had spent the winter in southern California and had only recently returned, accompanied by Miss Jane Gillett.Most of Miss Kent's life was spent in Jacksonville, the family coming here from her birthplace, Plymouth, Michigan. After teaching in the city schools here for several years
she was appointed superintendent.
This position she resigned to become a teacher in the State School for the Deaf. Here she specialized in mathematics. Her books on arithmetic are now the recognized authority in schools for the deaf both in this country and abroad.Miss Kent was one of the charter members of the Woman's Club and of the Daughters of the American Revolution and she was also a member of Sorosis. Six years ago Miss Kent with Miss Morse returned to their fruit farm, Bittersweet, at old

HOUSE WAS ROBBED.

Burglars committed a wholesale robbery at the house of Sam Coultas in Broadway alley sometime between Friday afternoon and Monday morning. Mr. Coultas was in the house Friday afternoon and everything was apparently all right. Monday he went back and discovered it had been robbed.The thieves evidently backed a wagon up to the door and loaded
the stuff in. Coultas reports the following articles missing: Six feather pillows, four comforts, two blankets,
one cook stove, Singer sewing machine, kitchen utensils, one electric lamp and several pictures. In addition to the foregoing the thieves tore all of the zinc out of the ice box.This house was one occupied by some of the women who had been warned through the department of Public Health and Safety to leave town. The people had obeyed the order and the house was not occupied, though furnished throughout.Mr. and Mrs. Harry Braner were

IN ANNUAL SESSIONReports for the Year Were of Satisfactory Character—Membership
Well Represented.The annual meeting of the trustees of Illinois Woman's college was held Monday with a full attendance of trustees and of conference visitors. The reports presented by President Harker and by various officers indicated that the year has been one of progress at the college and that the future is promising indeed. President Harker's complete report will be made public today.Early in the session yesterday memorials for Stephen R. Capps and for Rev. Horace Reed were made, and will be included in the records of the board. Reports were made by Mrs. Belle Short Lambert and Rev.
E. B. Houck, who are serving as field secretaries for the college, and by Mrs. Jennie K. Ward as treasurer of the alumnae endowment fund. The report for the conference visitors was made by Rev. G. W. Flagg.The election of officers resulted in the choice of the following: president,
Dr. T. J. Pitner; secretary, Dr. J.
R. Harker; treasurer, E. E. Crabtree; executive committee, the officers already named with the addition of T. B. Orenar and Mrs. Belle Lambert; teachers' committee, Dr. T. J.
Pitner, Dr. J. R. Harker, Mrs. Belle
Short Lambert; auditing committee,
W. E. Veitch, C. P. Gillett, J. W.
Welton.The session of the board was marked by an unusual enthusiasm and interest on the part of the trustees,
who have evidently come to share
Dr. Harker's view that the Woman's college occupies a strategic position and is rapidly becoming one of the greatest of Methodist institutions.
As the church has but two colleges distinctly for women—Goucher, in Baltimore and the Woman's College in this city—the field is certainly almost limitless, and the trustees now join with the president in seeing the possibilities which are presented.The list of those present yesterday included Dr. E. C. Welch

CLERKS
CONFERENCEH. OF NATIONAL AS-
IN CONVENTION.Sessions Held Monday Entertainment Program at H. Canavan Made Adference to Continue To-

Illinois state branch of the association of postoffice clerks held its fifteenth annual convention at the Odd Fellows Temple on Monday at 10 o'clock Monday. There is a good attendance of members from all parts of the state.

Members of the local office had prepared for the occasion. Monday being a holiday the postoffice force was all day helping in the entertainment.

Morning Session.
The morning session was called to order by Carl S. Richards, president of the local branch of the association. Prayer by Rev. George H. Canavan, pastor of Centenary church. The chair introduced Mayor Rogers who delivered the welcome in behalf of the city. Mayor Rogers spoke of the interest in the city and expressed warm welcome to the visitors.

Mayor Ralph I. Dunlap then addressed the convention in behalf of the local branch of the organization. Mr. Dunlap referred to Jacksonville in history and of the place in history and of the women she has produced who have helped make history and of the present time are helping the world's work.

In response to the addresses was
by Wallace Ruff, state president. Mr. Ruff was most happy in remarks and was greeted with applause by his hearers.

Mr. J. Reeve, former postmaster spoke on "Reminiscences of the postmaster." Mr. Reeve kept his remarks in a good humor in telling of happenings, some real and some imaginary that might befall a postmaster.

H. Canavan of Chicago then made the report of Frank Rogers, national president of the organization.
The appointment of committees by the president the convention closed at 1 o'clock.

Afternoon Session.
The real business of the session was with the opening of the afternoon session. After the reports of committees on credentials and organization various subjects of interest to the members were discussed.

Entertainment Program.
A banquet was served in the banquet hall of the temple Monday evening. The ladies of Rebekah lodge were in charge. The menu was an excellent one and was enjoyed by more than hundred. Following the banquet the assembly to order and the following program was given.

March—Postoffice orchestra.
Instrumental duet, violin and guitar—John Kerns and A. B. Kent.
Vocal selection—Postoffice quar-

Violin solo—Miss Carrie Dunlap.
Companist, Miss Alma Forsyth.
Vocal solo—Mrs. Thomas Harber.
Companist, Edith Millerby.

Selection—Postoffice orchestra.
All of the musical numbers were well received and encores were demanded on every one of them.

It was a great disappointment to the convention when it was learned that Congressman Madden who was to deliver an address could not be present.

President Ruff read a letter from Mr. Madden expressing his regret at not being able to be present. He then introduced W. H. Canavan of Chicago who made a brief address.

Mr. Canavan said that he could not fill Mr. Madden's place but that he had been told by the president that he would just be asked to fill in.
He spoke of Madden's work for the postal service and said that no man had done more not even excepting Elley of Connecticut. The speaker said that Madden not only was a friend of the postoffice clerks but of every employee of the service and that every employee should endeavor to live up to the high ideal which Mr.
Madden had set for them.

Mr. Canavan referred to his twenty-years of service in the postal department and told of the initial steps taken to get better wages. He said that every step forward in legislation had also been a step forward in efficiency. The speaker referred to the eight hour law that had been secured and then of the fight being made for the retirement of employees.
He said if the employees would stick together and wage a campaign of education they would win. In closing the speaker paid a beautiful tribute to the flag and referred to the postal employees as soldiers of peace.

Mr. Canavan's remarks were given great attention and he was given great applause at the close.

The sessions will continue throughout the day.

WEAK, AILING CHILD.

Made strong by delicious Vinol
Lakeport, N. H.—"Our little girl 8 years of age was in a debilitated, run-down condition and had a stubborn cough so she was weak and ailing all the time. Nothing helped her until we tried Vinol. Then her appetite increased and she is strong and well, and I wish other parents of weak, delicate children would try Vinol."—Geo. A. Collins.

This is because Vinol contains the tissue building, strengthening cod liver elements and the tonic iron which a weak and run-down system needs. Lee P. Alcott, druggist,

MEMORIAL DAY FITTINGLY
OBSERVED IN JACKSONVILLE

Rev. M. L. Pontius at Christian Church Preached Eloquent Sermon to Veterans.

Although Sunday dawned rather gloomy and unpropitious a goodly number of veterans and members of the Relief Corps gathered at G. A. R.
hall to mark the Central Christian church for the annual memorial day sermon. Every courtesy was paid the visitors who occupied seats specially reserved for them and the church was finely decorated. There was a profusion of flags and national colors while portraits of Grant, Lincoln, Washington, Sherman and Logan indicated the character of the occasion and showed the memory of those great men was still fresh in the minds of the people.

The Christian veteran, Dr. Rule, was invited to read the scripture and offer the opening prayer. The music under the direction of Philip Read with the accomplished organist, Miss Alice Mathis, was inspiring and all the exercises were in keeping with the day and deeply impressive.

The pastor, Rev. M. L. Pontius, cordially welcomed the visitors declaring their presence an honor to the church for they were men to whom a united land owes its existence and all its attendant privileges. What they endured and the sacrifices they made will only be known to the Great Commander above.

The discourse that followed was a fine effort and deserves a much larger report than space will permit. The text was Joshua 4:21. "What mean ye by these stones?" He said in brief:

"There are in the world a few places which are peculiarly sacred.
From the summit of Sinai came the ten commandments when Moses was so near his Creator; on Calvary the blessed Son of God died for the redemption of mankind; at Waterloo
the man who would control the nations and satisfy his inordinate ambition met his final defeat; at Philadelphia the old bell rang out the announcement of liberty heard throughout the world; not far from Richmond, Virginia, is a little station which witnessed the final act of the civil war; from Charleston a shot was fired at Fort Sumter and with the dying echoes of that discharge came the death knell of human slavery; camp fires were extinguished, soldiers who had survived went home and the brotherhood of man was proclaimed.

"We are not given to hero worshipping in this country but because the veterans fought and laid down their lives we have a united land.
Our nation began its existence in a struggle for independence and it has ever been the home of the oppressed of the earth. Our flag stands for liberty and freedom and our land is the home of the oppressed. He who would gaze on Old Glory and the men who fought to preserve it and be unmoved is not worthy to be a citizen of this land. When the children of Israel saw the little pile of stones by the river Jordan and asked what it meant they were told that in them was represented the great history of the nation to that time. So when the young people of today see the veterans and ladies of the relief corps marching to this service and ask what it means they are reminded of the tremendous sacrifice with which our liberties were preserved.
"All good things must be bought with a price. We reverence the Christian religion and yet fail to comprehend its cost. We enjoy our free land and yet can hardly realize what sacrifices of all that was dear and of life itself were made by the brave men who fought to maintain the union. I am glad that after fifty years the blue and the grey can fraternize and that on this occasion the graves of both are decorated.
I am glad that sectional strife no longer exists. (Here the speaker recited the beautiful poem,
"The Blue and the Grey.")

"Soldiers of the 60's, we honor
you. You obeyed the orders of your silent commander when it meant hardships, wounds and death. Grey hairs now adorn your heads and the shadows of your lives are lengthening to the east; bravely you fought and greatly we honor you. Are you today engaged in the great conflict with sin and evil? Have you on the armor of God? If so when the final roll is called your destination will be heaven and eternal glory; you will see the shining streets and angels will say, 'Make way for the veterans.'

"Along with the brave soldiers we owe untold debts to the noble mothers who remained at home and bore untold grief and made inestimable sacrifices for the ones at the front.
All honor to them and glory and shame to the man who would deprive the veteran of his just pension.
This is the fiftieth anniversary of the close of the war, your ranks are growing thinner and thinner and one day will witness the last surviving veteran of the war and he should have a burial as grand as that accorded the great lawgiver of Israel. Let the 30th day of May ever be observed as sacred to the memory of the soldier dead and in the hearts of a grateful nation ever remain undying devotion to the memory of the brave men who saved our beloved land."

"This service commemorates a lasting liberty for which our country stands. Its foundations are strong and the superstructure is like that of the building whose steel framework is one compact body indisso-lably bound together withstanding even the shocks of earthquakes and devastation of fire. Laws come and go but the constitution of the United States is a document which will endure while time shall last. We should honor God and the men who saved the land and gave us our liberties.

"Patriotism is the love of any holly cause. If Rome thinks the waters of the Tiber the best on earth;
if the Londoner thinks the Thames
the grandest of rivers; if the Swiss

Who Will Pay for This?

The bill pending in the legislature of Illinois which would prohibit the railways of this state from running any freight train containing more than 50 cars would cause an enormous increase in the cost of railway transportation.

The railway companies must defray all their expenses out of their earnings. Their earnings are derived entirely from the rates paid to them by the traveling and shipping public. Therefore, whatever tends to increase their expenses also necessarily tends to cause either an increase in the passenger and freight rates which the traveling public must pay or a deterioration in the service rendered to the public. It follows that in the long run

The Travelers and Shippers of Illinois Must Pay the increased expenses that would be caused by the proposed train limit legislation. Careful estimate and compilation of the consequences of this proposed legislation to the railways of Illinois show that it would increase railway expenses in the following ways and for the following reasons:

1. The railways of Illinois have invested millions in reducing grades, building long siding, yard and terminal tracks, and in buying large and powerful locomotives to enable them to handle traffic in long trains. This is progressive rail-roading. The investments made for these purposes, which would be rendered valueless by train limit legislation is estimated at $53,432,807.
2. The great power and efficiency of the large locomotives now used would be rendered inoperative by the limitation of the length of trains to 50 cars. It would be necessary to run more trains and therefore to have a larger number of locomotives to pull them. It would also be necessary on many roads to provide additional tracks and other facilities for the accommodation of the additional trains. The additional investment in tracks, locomotives, etc., which the proposed legislation would force upon the railways, would amount to $19,635,327.
3. The railroads would have to raise the capital to provide this additional equipment, trackage and other facilities. They would have to pay a return on it. The interest charge on this new investment at 5 per cent per annum would be $981,766.
4. For every additional train which this proposed legislation would force the railroads to run, an additional train crew would be required, also more employees of other classes, as yardmen, switchmen, etc.; also more fuel for the locomotives required to haul the increased number of trains. These entirely new and unnecessary expenses would have to be added to operating costs. This annual increase in operating expenses for wages, fuel, etc., would be $6,368,555.
5. Adding the annual interest charge on the new investment to the increases in labor, fuel, and other operating costs, would make an annual increase in the total expenses of the railroads of Illinois of $7,350,321.

Added Railway Expense in Illinois, $7,350,321 Per Year!

Read again and study the enormous financial burden which this proposed legislation would place upon the railways of Illinois and through them upon the public which they serve:

The Total Cost in Illinois

1. Existing Investment Made to Haul Long Trains that Would be Rendered Valueless	$53,432,807
2. New Investment that the Railways Would be Forced to Make	19,635,327
3. Interest per annum at 5 per cent on this New Investment	$ 981,766
4. Increase in Annual Operating Expenses that Would be Forced on the Railways	6,368,555
5. Total Increase per Year in Railway Expenses	$ 7,350,321

The real purpose of this proposed legislation which would place such an additional and heavy burden upon the railroads directly and on the people of Illinois indirectly is

To Compel Railways to Employ Men They Do Not Need

Do you, Mr. Farmer, Mr. Manufacturer, Mr. Merchant, Mr. Traveler, wish to be forced to pay more for your transportation, or to have your railway service deteriorated, because the railways have been forced to incur unnecessary expense in order to give employment to men that they do not need? If not,

Appeal to Your Representatives and Senators to defeat the foolish and iniquitous bill to limit the length of trains.

(Signed) The Railways of Illinois

EUROPEAN WAR NOTES

Paris, May 31.—(10:35 p. m.)—
The following official communication was issued by the war office tonight:

"On the Yser front there has been an artillery engagement. In the region to the north of Arras we have made new progress.

"On the road from Souchez to Carency we have taken possession of the Malon Mill and the German trenches which extended from the mill to the sugar refinery at Souch-ez. We made about fifty prisoners.

"In the region of the 'Labyrinth'
after having repulsed a German counter-attack last night, we organized the positions gained.

"The enemy delivered no infantry attack today; he merely bombarded our front.

"On the outskirts of Le Pretre forest there has been only an artillery action. In the course of the engagements on May 30 we took two machine guns."

Vienna, via London, May 31.—(8:

33 p. m.)—The Austrian war office today gave out the following official communication:

"In the Russian war theatre:

"On the San and east of that river
there was no serious engagement yesterday, north and southwest of the Przemyśl front and on the Upper Danube the fighting continues.
Near Stry we took several positions and captured a Russian battery."

"Italian war theatre—Sunday forenoon, an attack by an Alpine regiment on the sector of our fortifications on the Lavarone plateau was sanguinarily repulsed.

"Near the northeast of Panevegio (in the region of Prebazzo) a hostile detachment began to entrench but retired before the fire of our patrol.

"Carinthian frontier: Small engagements favorable to us occurred here. To the east of Karfreit (Caporetto) the enemy vainly attempted to climb the slopes of the Kern.

"On the Voshthal frontier: An artillery battle is raging. The attack was begun by our heavy artillery."

Petrograd, May 31.—Via London, (6:45 p. m.)—The battle on the San in the vicinity of Przemyśl is developing in favor of the Russians,
according to an official announcement given out today. Furthermore, the Russians between May 12th and May 24th, captured nearly 19,000 of their antagonists.

The text of the communication follows:

"In the Shavli region, in Koxno province, the Germans continue to resist our offensive with violent fire but the fighting in this district continues to our advantage.

"On the front between the River Pilica and the Upper Vistula we captured between May 12 and May 24, 209 officers and 18,617 of the rank and file.

"In Galicia, the battle on the San river is developing in our favor. Our troops have successfully assumed the offensive and last night they crossed the River Lubaczowka and occupied the village of Monasterz, inflicting heavy losses on the enemy.

"The offensive of the enemy along the front from Jaroslau to Radymno in an easterly direction has been stopped by our fire.

"In the region beyond the Dneis-ter all the hostile attacks on Saturday along the front between Zaderewacz, Bolechow and Jawarow were repulsed with heavy losses to the enemy. On Saturday night our troops assumed a resolute offensive with great success. On this front we captured over 7,000 prisoners and thirty quick-firing guns. The enemy began a disorderly retreat.

"On other sectors of our front
there were no important changes during Saturday."

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Rexroat expect to leave this morning for St.
Elmo where Mrs. Rexroat is to consult Dr. Smith.

DESIGNATES CAPT. GRANT TO COMMAND ATLANTIC SUBMARINES

Officer Will Also Exercise General Supervision Over Submarine Branch of the Navy—Will Assume New Duties Next Month.

Washington, May 31.—In line with his announced determination to develop the submarine arm of the navy and eliminate its present faults, Secretary Daniels today designated Captain A. W. Grant, one of the highest ranking officers of his grade, to command the Atlantic submarine flotilla and exercise general supervision over that branch of the service.

Captain Grant, who now commands the battleship Texas, will assume his new duties next month with headquarters aboard the flotilla flagship. He will have as his assistant Yates Sterling, now commanding the flotilla and an expert on under water craft, whose testimony before a congressional committee during the last session gave the public some interesting details about the weaknesses of the boats under his charge.

It is expected that Captain Grant will spend much of his time in Washington and at the various shore stations, conferring with officials and construction officers. A department statement issued tonight announcing his designation said:

"While Captain Grant will be in immediate command of the Atlantic submarine flotilla and aboard the flagship assigned to the commander of the flotilla, he will also have general supervision of the submarines in the Pacific and in other parts of the world in so far as the general policy of the development and organization is concerned, the idea being that a determined effort is being made to put every unit of the submarine flotilla in first class condition to perform all of the functions for which it is designed."

ARLINGTON MERCHANT FEELS BETTER

Friedrich Redeker, a business man of Arlington, Ill., was a victim of stomach and digestive troubles. He went to a hospital for an operation for another trouble. When he recovered from the operation he found his stomach trouble worse and his heart affected.

He took Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. He got his appetite back and gained in strength right away. He wrote:

"I owe you some words of congratulation for your stomach remedy. I could not eat anything but soft food and the bloating from gas got so bad that at one time I had a fainting spell for three hours. I went to one of your Chicago drug stores and got your remedy. I took the remedy and the next morning was relieved. I am getting stronger and can eat anything that comes along."

Mayr's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much and whatever you like. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your drugist now and try it on an absolute guarantee—if not satisfactory money will be returned.

CLASS DAY EXERCISES AT THE WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Students Carried Out a Very Pleasant Program—Some New Ideas Presented.

Class day on the campus of the Woman's College was a unique and highly successful affair. Seats were arranged under the large trees and thither the audience wended its way and soon sounds of voices indicated the approach of the merrymakers. Soon the freshman class in a semi-circle carrying a long wreath or garlanded rope appeared and within the curve marched the juniors singing the college song and followed by the grave and reverend seniors in caps and gowns.

Assembling around the large tree at whose base the class ivy was to be planted, Miss Feril Hess delivered the class oration which was a timely and well prepared effort. She told in glowing terms of the days they had enjoyed in the college, of the tender ties created, the good received and the hopes and aspirations aroused. Her retrospect was a fine tribute to the institution, its faculty and all connected with it. She told in feeling terms how the old ivy by the wall of the main building had been prostrated by the recent storm and of the use made of it in other ways.

The beribboned spade was then produced and probably the young ladies are excusable for having the hole dug first but the ivy was put in place and one after another deposited on the roots a lot of dirt so they can truthfully say they planted it. The remainder of the program was a pleasant departure from the ordinary way in which such days are celebrated. Instead of being seated and carrying out a program in orthodox style the young ladies had an imaginary preliminary meeting, free, easy and unconventional, sitting, standing, walking around and having a good time generally.

They discussed all sorts of propositions and finally decided they must have a class poem and Miss Louise Harries read one just to see if it would do and all pronounced it just the thing.

There was considerable talk as to how they would have the class prophecy and finally Miss Helen Dinsmore declared herself a reader of hands or adept in palmistry and each member was invited to kneel before her with extended palm and have her future announced which was done with all gravity. They had a lot of things to leave the juniors and Mary Louise Powell asked them all finally to listen to her suggestions on that subject which were declared all right and the will was duly adopted.

A lot of humorous statistics were announced by Misses Lucille Reinbach and Josephine Ross, average weight, height, age, circumference of waists and the like, were all given in due form with becoming gravity. The junior gifts made plenty of amusement and with good reasons for they were droll enough. This part of the program was followed by the class song and then came the presentation of the banner to the class of 1919, by the class president, Miss Winnifred Burnmeister.

It was received by Miss Lena Johnson who responded in a very neat and appropriate speech and the college song ended the exercises of the occasion.

PIKE COUNTY YOUNG MAN ACCIDENTALLY SHOT
Emery Stumborg of Hadley, Pike county, is at Passavant hospital suffering from a gun shot wound in the shoulder. Sunday Stumborg went out to pick strawberries. He was carrying a shotgun and had pulled up a stake which was sticking in the ground. He stuck the stake back in the ground but did not fix it firmly and it fell striking the trigger of the gun and discharging it. The load of shot struck the boy in the left arm near the shoulder.

Not realizing that he was badly injured he walked a quarter of a mile to the house and called his father out and told him that he had accidentally shot himself. The father cut the sweater away the boy was wearing and a piece of the bone of the arm came with it. A physician was called and the injury taken care of temporarily. The boy was brought to Passavant hospital where he was attended by Dr. Carl E. Black. Dr. Black performed an operation which will shorten the arm considerably but the arm will be saved.

REVIVAL STARTS AT BAPTIST MISSION.

Monday evening the Rev. Percy W. Stephens of the First Baptist church began a series of revival services at the mission conducted by that church in the first ward of the city at the corner of Ashland avenue and Farrell street. The services will last through this week, each evening except Saturday, and commence at 7:30 o'clock.

The following singers will assist Mr. Stephens each evening in the order given: Miss Mabel Goffra, Miss Laura Hayden, Mrs. Thos. Harbe, Miss Mabel Belle Long and Miss Nell Self. Mr. Wm. Lurton will also sing. The organ will be played by Miss Roberts, the mission organist, and the mission chorus will furnish additional music.

LYMAN S. KENT IN TOWN.

Lyman S. Kent for many years proprietor of the cigar factory now operated by A. F. Franks and commonly known as the "big shop" is in the city. Mr. Kent has been engaged in the cigar business in South Bend for several years. He has disposed of most of his holdings in South Bend and has retired from business there. He has no definite plans for the future but will be in Jacksonville for several days.

Dr. S. O. Savage of Tallula was a business visitor in the city Monday. A. T. King of Denison, Iowa, visited friends in the city Monday.

VETERANS DECORATE GRAVES OF THEIR DEAD

SERVICES ARE HELD AT CENTENARY CHURCH.

Rev. W. J. Libberton of Chicago Delivers Memorial Day Address—Parade is Formed at Dunlap Hotel and Passes Through Square—Large Number Assist in Exercises.

Not in the history of Jacksonville has there been a better day for the occasion of decorating the graves of the soldier dead than yesterday and a great throng assisted in the work. Goodly contributions of flowers were sent to G. A. R. hall and in the morning a deputation went out to Diamond Grove and Calvary cemeteries and duly honored the last resting place of the departed heroes in those beautiful places.

In the afternoon the veterans gathered at G. A. R. hall and in charge of Commander Benjamin Wood marched to the Dunlap house and escorted the speaker of the day to Centenary church. The line was in command of Chief Marshal Capt. John E. Wright with Abraham Reid and Lloyd James assistants. The line of march was:

Platoon of Police.
Jeffries' band.
The Fire Department.
Company I, commanded by Captain Percy Owen.
Veterans.
Ladies of the Woman's Relief Corps.

Church Elaborately Decorated.

The band, as usual supplied splendid music and received many well deserved compliments. Arriving at the church the veterans opened order and permitted the ladies to enter and then followed to seats reserved for them. The church was finely decorated for the occasion with flags and flowers, while portraits of Lincoln, Grant, Sherman, Logan and Sheridan lent character to the whole.

Past Commander W. H. Jordan presided and requested Dr. Rule to offer prayer. Gen. Logan's order, No. 11, establishing May 30 as Decoration day was read by Major McDougall. Miss Louise Miller of the Woman's College then most effectively sang "Star Spangled Banner" the audience joining heartily in the chorus. Miss Esther Spoonst, the popular and gifted elocutionist, then recited in a highly accomplished manner a stirring selection, "Rosalind's Surrender," and after music by the band, Miss Louise Gleckler recited in a pleasing manner, "Tom Taylor's Tribute to Lincoln." Lincoln's immortal address of the dedication of the battlefield of Gettysburg was read in an effective manner by H. H. Bancroft and then the audience, led by Thos. H. Rapp, sang that sterling hymn, "How Firm a Foundation, Ye Saints of the Lord."

Rev. J. W. Libberton Speaks.

The orator of the day, Rev. W. J. Libberton of Chicago was then introduced. The gentleman has a commanding presence and a fine voice. He said he was a Methodist preacher and had been serving for some forty years in the Rock River conference and was now resting somewhat on his laurels. He had found here a former schoolmate whom he had not seen for a good many years and the gentleman had showed him about Jacksonville, which he complimented especially highly remarking that if it were not for looking after Chicago sinners he would be glad to come here to live.

Of his oration a very few thoughts are presented:

"Few persons can ever realize what the soldiers in the civil war endured. It was good of the women of the relief corps to follow them today and let them enjoy the odor of the flowers while living, for it will not penetrate a coffin lid. During this awful cataclysm abroad men are ridiculing christianity and asking where is God? He has his program for mankind and you will do well to take your place in it.

"All evil must go down before the march of the Prince of Peace. In the rotunda of the capitol at Washington are some grand paintings, one of them the landing of the Pilgrims and there on the deck of the little craft they are committing their enterprise to the care of God. Genuine men stand for something. I did not vote for President Wilson but I am praying for him and feel that thus far in the delicate affairs with which he has to deal he has acted wisely and the nation must stand by him.

"Our country is fortunate in climate and extent for with suitable cultivation we could feed the world. The hope of the nation lies in properly reared children. What a cruel shame that he genius of men has been employed in devising a missile whose fumes will destroy men without touching them; shame on the people who make these vile stink balls. What a shame that so many men have been killed in this awful war. The only way to settle it is by the principles of the Prince of Peace.

"Some years ago there was a movement to take from our coins the motto 'In God We Trust,' but what a bowl would have gone up had it been attempted. If any foreign nation attempts to make us trouble they will find us at home when they get here.

Should Aid the Negro.

"The civil war was to free the weak. Our country could not exist with the awful sin of slavery in its borders. For more than a hundred years we polluted the black man and now it is our solemn duty to put a white soul into him and we can do it. When Spain acted improperly we treated her as the mother treats her naughty boy when she lays him across her lap and proceeds to administer punishment. We treated Spain that way and told her to leave Cuba and the Philippines and go home and be good. Men cannot be small in a state where the principles of the Mayflower prevail.

"Over the water a few people own nearly all. The scenery along the Rhine is beautiful but it made my heart ache to see women with bags of earth on their backs toiling up the hills to deposit the dirt and plant a few vines to help keep the wolf from the door. It grieves me beyond measure to think of the noble structures and priceless works of art in Antwerp, Brussels, Rhelms and other Belgian cities which have been ruthlessly destroyed for they can never be replaced.

"Matthew Arnold said our country was too beastly rich but we have been generous enough to send ten millions a month to the starving people of Belgium. I am glad to see the principles of temperance prevailing in our land. In the reunion in 1900 in Chicago I saw but one veteran under the influence of liquor. We had a reunion of my old regiment, the 134th, and a man brought us in a case of beer and I watched especially three comrades who used to be given to drink but none of them touched the stu for they had been converted and given it up.

"Let us stand by our president in this hard situation; let us stand for the right and God be with us."

The column then formed and marched to Jacksonville cemetery, a goodly number of citizens in vehicles following. The speaker walked out and at the military lot the ritual was read by Commander Wood, Vice Commander Kirkman and Chaplain Melton. A detachment from Co. I fired the salute and the graves were decorated.

WOMEN HAVE TO SMILE

In a great many cases and try to make those around them happy, while they are racked with the pain of organic trouble. Few men realize how common such heroism is. The remedy for this condition is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—a simple remedy made from roots and herbs, which for forty years has been overcoming the most obstinate ills of women. Every woman suffering from female ills owes it to herself and family to give it a fair trial.—Advertisement.

APPOINTMENTS MADE FOR CITY SERVICE

CHANGES IN SEVERAL DEPARTMENTS WERE MADE PUBLIC MONDAY.

Commissioners Martin and Vasconcellos Name a Number of New Men Who Have Entered on Their Duties—G. P. Davis is Chief of Police and Samuel Hunt Heads Fire Department.

Announcement was made yesterday by Commissioners Vasconcellos of several changes in the employees in their departments and it is the expectation that these appointments will be formally made this morning when the council meets.

Mr. Martin has named George P. Davis as chief of police and Samuel Hunt as chief of the fire department. Other appointments in the police department are to be made later and the new men in the fire department are Carl Cokely who becomes assistant chief, William Fensler and Frank Kiloran. The men relieved from duty are James Woods, Alexander Howard and Fred Konrad.

It was Commissioner Martin's wish to make few changes yet to strengthen the department, and it is possible that a few other changes may come. The personnel of the department in a whole is as follows:

Chief—Samuel Hunt.
Assistant—Carl Cokely.
Boysmen—Earl Butcher, William Fensler, Frank Kiloran, John Taylor.
Drivers—Henry Smith, Wilson Osborne, James Samples.
Engineer—John Roach.
Stoker—Charles De Silva.

An Economy Plan.

According to the plan Commissioner Martin has outlined Frank Kiloran who has been desk sergeant in the police department will serve in the dual capacity of desk sergeant and fireman. At night the fireman on watch will serve as desk sergeant. The positions of call firemen have been abolished and it is the plan to have one less member of the day police force. This will effect a saving of $220 per month or a total of $2,640 a year by comparison with previous arrangement. The commissioner believes these changes can be made without in any way crippling the service and the other lines of economy will also be sought. It is expected that early announcement will be made of the selections for the police service.

As is well known Chief of Police Davis has served ably for years as the head of that department and is accounted the best qualified man in the city for the position.

Samuel Hunt has been in the department for years and has the reputation of being a courageous and efficient fire fighter. Carl Cokely, the assistant chief, is not new to the department work as he has served for years as a call fireman.

Commissioner Vasconcellos has announced the following appointments of men who entered the city's service Monday and still other changes are possible. Mr. Vasconcellos has made an effort to select men he feels especially qualified for the work. The appointments are: mechanical engineer, William Wilkinson; George Stoldt, engineers at north plant; Roland Stice, engineer and fireman at south plant; Frank Kaule and Frank Veria; firemen light plant, Howard Wood and Hiram Johnson. William Catherwood remains as superintendent. John Ricks as head engineer, Lawrence Quinlan as engineer, Fred Subbelfield and George Souza as engineers at the north plant, Manuel Baptista and Fred Goss as firemen at the light plant. The men released thus far are John T. Crow and Fred Brown, engineers; C. R. Butterbush, William Quinlan, Anthony Kennedy and James Montgomery, firemen. Still other changes may come after commissioner determines exact needs of the departments. The list of appointments includes a number of men with large experience. William Wilkinson was for more than twenty years chief engineer at Jacksonville State hospital; Frank Kaule was long in the city service and still longer at the school for the blind. George Stoldt has had training in electric light plants in other cities.

Other Officials Retire.
Appointments in other departments may be made today but the commissioners were not ready to announce last night. Mr. Cox stated that he planned to act as superintendent of streets himself and that practically all the work in his departments would be done by men employed by the day. Mr. Widmayer said that he was not ready to state who would be city clerk and Mayor Rodgers intimated that the announcements made by Commissioners Martin and Vasconcellos were practically all that had been agreed upon.

COMMENCEMENT AT WOMAN'S COLLEGE
The commencement exercises of the Woman's college will be held this morning at 9:30 o'clock in music hall. The alumnae and former students of the college are requested to assemble at the college at 9 o'clock in order to form a procession to music hall. The commencement speaker is Dr. Claudius Spencer, editor of the Central Christian Advocate.

TO ATTEND EXPOSITION.
Charles Gibbs, Sr., and son Wayne, who reside west of Jacksonville left Sunday morning for San Francisco, where they will visit the exposition for three weeks. They will also go to Los Angeles, Calif., where they will visit Mr. Gibbs' daughter, Miss Florence. They will take the southern route in going out and return via the Grand Canyon. They expect to visit several places of interest in California.

FUNERAL OF MARCUS P. ROBINSON AT FAMILY RESIDENCE MONDAY

Last Rites for Victim of Violent Death in Charge of Dr. R. O. Post at Home of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Robinson.

Funeral services for Marcus P. Robinson were held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the family home 537 South Diamond street, in charge of Dr. R. O. Post, pastor of the Congregational church. In the presence of many loyal friends the minister spoke words of comfort and hope. Friends and associates of the young man assisted in the services, winning heartfelt gratitude by their tender willingness.

Monday evening the remains were sent to Chicago for cremation, in compliance with a wish of the deceased, expressed at several different times. Accompanying the body were Marcus L. Robinson, father of the deceased; Albert Robinson of Oak Park, an uncle of the boy; Henry Kirby, of Chicago and J. G. Reynolds.

Miss Mabel Mathews assisted with song at the afternoon services Monday, leading the hymn, "Onward Christian Soldiers," in which at the proper time, all present joined. Carrying for the many beautiful flowers were Misses Marian Capps, Helen Allcott, Beulah McMurphy, Ida Widmayer and Hazel Widmayer. The bearers were Charles Widmayer, Worthington Adams, Allan Smith, James Barnes, John Lane and James Capps, Jr.

The young man's love for electrical research was mentioned by Dr. Post in the course of his talk, a pursuit he followed as a member of the Radio club. His entrance into the club was welcomed by his parents, who look upon the organization with favor and without malice.

From the eleventh chapter of St. John's gospel the minister read the story of Lazarus raised from the dead, for "He groaned in the spirit and was troubled and said, Where have ye laid him? They say unto him, Lord, come and see. Jesus wept. Then said the Jews, Behold now he loved him." "I quote these words for a double purpose," said the pastor, "for they contain a double assurance, the assurance of love and the assurance of life. Death is the last great adversary and even the spirit of our Lord sank with trembling from it. With agony of soul did he pray for deliverance from the last bitter cup. We cling to this fear when other fears are banished for we know that death is the last enemy to be conquered. 'If thou hadst been here, my brother had not died,' said the sister, appealing to the Master's power and crying to the Master's heart of love.

"I am the resurrection and the life," said Jesus, "he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live." With these words we have the assurance of life from the only one who spoke with human tongue. Others have wished for the life eternal and urged faith in its coming. Jesus spoke as one who knew.

"And thus we have the twofold meaning. As life without love is worthless and love without life is no meaning to us, Christ the Comforter, assuring life and love, is healing balm for the wounded and wandering spirit.

"The life of our loved one has not gone out, but gone on. Viewing the adventure of life, we see how keen he was for it. Nothing daunted him in his search for knowledge and it was in experiment with one of life's greatest forces that he met death. It was in searching for the secrets of that mysterious force, which Lord Kelvin, after fifty years of endeavor, declared as unknowable, as unfathomable as at the first—electricity, the subtle power which the greatest minds of earth have failed to comprehend."

PATRIOTIC EXERCISES AT OPEN AIR SCHOOL

Memorial day was fittingly observed yesterday by children of the open air school and the sessions were dismissed earlier than usual in honor of the day. In the morning, the Rev. Percy W. Stephens, pastor of the Baptist church, came to the school and talked to the pupils on the meaning of the flag. At noon the children were pleasantly surprised by the appearance of the table. Mrs. Riggs had cooked an especially fine dinner, and the flags and flowers in evidence, bespoke the nature of the day. After dinner the pupils sang songs and with the help of Miss Hammond gave "America," the "Star Spangled Banner" and "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean."

SUFFERED BROKEN ARM.

Erasmus Cooper and a younger son of D. M. Cooper who resides on the Harold Johnson farm southwest of Lynville, met with an accident in the city Monday night at 11 o'clock on East State street. Their horse became frightened at a street car and ran into a telephone pole. Both boys were thrown out and the younger one, aged ten years, suffered a broken arm. He was taken to the office of Dr. Allen M. King who gave the necessary medical attention. The rig was badly broken up.

MEMORIAL DAY AT FRANKLIN.

Over five hundred people attended the Memorial day exercises at Franklin Sunday afternoon, on account of threatening weather held in the Methodist church. "How we may be worthy of the past" was the theme of Hugh Green of Jacksonville, the speaker of the afternoon. A pretty flag drill was given at the cemetery by a company of children.

IT'S SMOOTH AS SILK

A talcum powder containing the least particle of grit or foreign substance is not a proper powder to use on a baby's tender skin—or on your own. Before you accept a talcum powder rub a little on the back of the hand or on the tender part of the wrist—you will easily detect the presence of grit.

FINE ART EXHIBIT AT ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Proof of Excellent Work in the Several Departments is Given.

The exhibition in the art department of the Woman's college this year has some very attractive features creditable to the young ladies and their teacher, Miss Knopf. There is a pleasing amount of originality in the work of the young pupils. While the display of original designs is not as prominent as that of the more ambitious departments it is really something meritorious for in it there is something more than copying from life; it is original design. For instance, certain small figures are given the pupils and from them they are required to work out designs of various kinds, in figures, tones and the like. Here are figures suitable for borders of an ornamental kind, monograms, flowers and various forms. Then the pupils are to design stencils suitable for practical use and from one of these a tiger glares at the beholder and placed on a surface a person will quickly place his outlines with brush and suitable material. A pair of peacocks are well done and there are a good many designs for personal cards which are decidedly creditable. Taken as a whole this department is very attractive for the reason that it shows so much design and originality though in the school no pictures whatever are copied; all the work is done from subjects.

The charcoal drawings are always subjects of interest for in them lies a great deal of art. The correct portrayal of a bust or any kind of a still life subject on white paper requires a degree of skill and artistic ability which is out of the ordinary and in this line the work is up to the usual standard.

In water colors the display is of unusual amount and merit as well. One interesting group of pictures is composed of portraits of persons who sat for the purpose and the work is well done. The young ladies pose for each other and the pictures give plenty of scope for all the ability the pupil possesses.

There is also a good display of metal work, some hammered, some cut with acid and some prepared in other ways. Silver, German silver, brass and the like are used. Here is a desk set, there book ends, bowls and various articles are very well done and show skillful designing and work of the same quality.

There are also some pieces of leather work on which the carving has been well executed. This difficult branch of work has not occupied so much attention but it has been well done.

An unusual amount of decorated china is on exhibition and it certainly is very beautiful. A number of tea sets would cause a person to drink that beverage whether he wanted it or not if it were served in such beautiful articles and the same could be said of the chocolate sets. There are salad bowls, plates and a great variety of sets all beautiful and attractive.

The display of oils is not as large as usual but the quality has not gone back at all as the work is well done. Especial mention should be made of some still life subjects, a doll beside a gold fish vase in which the little swimmers are plainly seen. These and several others all show superior skill in using the palette and brush and the young ladies are to be congratulated on their success in this department.

MAY 1915 MONTH OF VARIATION FROM THE ESTABLISHED ORDER

Wet and cool, the month of May, 1915, presented several variations from average weather conditions. The mean temperature for the month was 60.1, according to George H. Hall, co-operative weather observer, or 3.8 degrees below normal. This is the lowest temperature since 1910 when the mean for May was 57.8. This year the maximum temperature was recorded on the 13th when the thermometer registered 89 and the minimum on the 9th when the temperature fell to 36 degrees.

The total precipitation for the month was 7.72 inches, the highest for many years, excepting 1908 and 1899. In the year first mentioned 7.78 inches of water fell and in 1899 the gauge showed a precipitation of 9.15 inches. The highest daily fall 1.77 inches, has been exceeded five times in the past twenty years during the month of May. The record is held by May 5, 1912 when there fell 2.14 inches of rain.

MEMORIAL DAY SERVICES AT CONCORD M. P. CHURCH

Memorial day services were held Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Methodist Protestant church at Concord. After "America" by the audience and a prayer by the Rev. C. L. Flanders of Danville, the Rev. A. L. Cain gave the reading from scripture. Music was furnished throughout the service by a special quartette and by the choir of the church. Addresses were made by the Rev. W. P. Bowman of Concord and by the Rev. L. Hadaway of Chapin. A clever recitation was given by Miss Doris Wester. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. Mr. Cain. The services had been well planned and each moment of the afternoon was enjoyed by the thirty-five old soldiers and the many friends attending.

A committee was appointed to have charge of 1916 Memorial Day arrangements. It consists of F. M. Henderson, E. L. Nickel and Lee Rexroat.

LAST SERMON OF SERIES AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

"The New Heaven and the New Earth" Discussed by Rev. Percy W. Stephens.

The morning and evening services at the First Baptist church on Sunday last, were both of special interest.

At the morning service, the pastor, the Rev. Percy W. Stephens, delivered the eleventh and last sermon of the "Through the Bible" Series, on the topic "The New Heaven and the New Earth."

In the evening special memorial services were held, the church having been tastefully decorated with colors and flowers by the ladies of the church. A number of members of the Grand Army of the Republic, and Company B of the Illinois National Guards were the guests of honor and occupied seats reserved for them. The pastor delivered an impressive sermon on "Impregnable Armor," and after paying a tribute to the soldiers who fought during the civil war, referred to a number of incidents of that memorable war with which to illustrate the message of the evening.

In the course of the morning message Mr. Stephens said:

"Peter prophesied that the earth is to be purified by fire just as it was once purified by water. Scientific facts which have been discovered during the past two centuries show that the atmosphere is composed of oxygen, the greatest feeder of combustion, and nitrogen to keep the oxygen in check, otherwise everything would be burned up. Water is a compound of hydrogen, the most inflammable gas known and oxygen, the greatest feeder of combustion. God has only to hold in check the nitrogen of the air, and to separate the hydrogen and nitrogen of the water and everything will be destroyed with incredible rapidity. Peter must have been inspired of God.

"The earth thus purged will be home of the Jewish nation, and the saved Gentile nations, while the new heaven will be the dwelling place of the unfallen angels.

"The New Jerusalem will be the eternal abiding place of the true church of God, and what a wonderful city it is. It is the city for which Abraham looked, the city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God. The city is so enormous in its dimensions that it would cover Europe, or taking Jerusalem as a center it would cover the whole territory promised to Israel. The city is also eternal in its duration in that it will never pass away, and is thus unlike the great cities of earth.

"Peter tells us that during that period righteousness will 'dwell' as the prevailing condition. During the millennium, righteousness will 'reign.' The millennium will be Christ's earthly kingdom, while the new heaven and new earth will be the scene of His universal kingdom when 'He shall have put down all rule and all authority and power' before He hands the kingdoms over to God that 'God might be all in all.' (1 Cor. 15:24.)

"In Philippians chapter 2, 9-11 the apostle Paul shows that the extent of Christ's dominion will be over things terrestrial, things infernal and things universal, and in Hebrews 2:6-9 there is given a marvellous four fold picture of the work of Christ, as follows:

"Made lower than the angels for the suffering of death, refers to the condensation of Christ.

"Crowned with glory and honor" refers to Christ's exaltation at the right hand of God. His present position.

"Set over the works of God's hands" has a reference to the millennial kingdom when Christ will rule the earth.

"All things in subjection under His feet" will be fulfilled during that final age when Christ will reign universally over the new creation.

STATE HOSPITAL WILL INSTITUTE EIGHT-HOUR SYSTEM TODAY

The Jacksonville State Hospital will today put in operation the eight hour day work system and for the present at least there will be no added number of employees. More thorough planning of work and closer application during hours of duty, will, it is hoped, enable employees to do their work in the lesser period of time. This will entail no hardship, it is pointed out, as employees will benefit individually by the gain in time per day. For the male employees there will be three eight-hour shifts per day. From 2 o'clock in the afternoon until 10 at night; from 10 until 6 a. m., and from 6 in the morning until 2 in the afternoon.

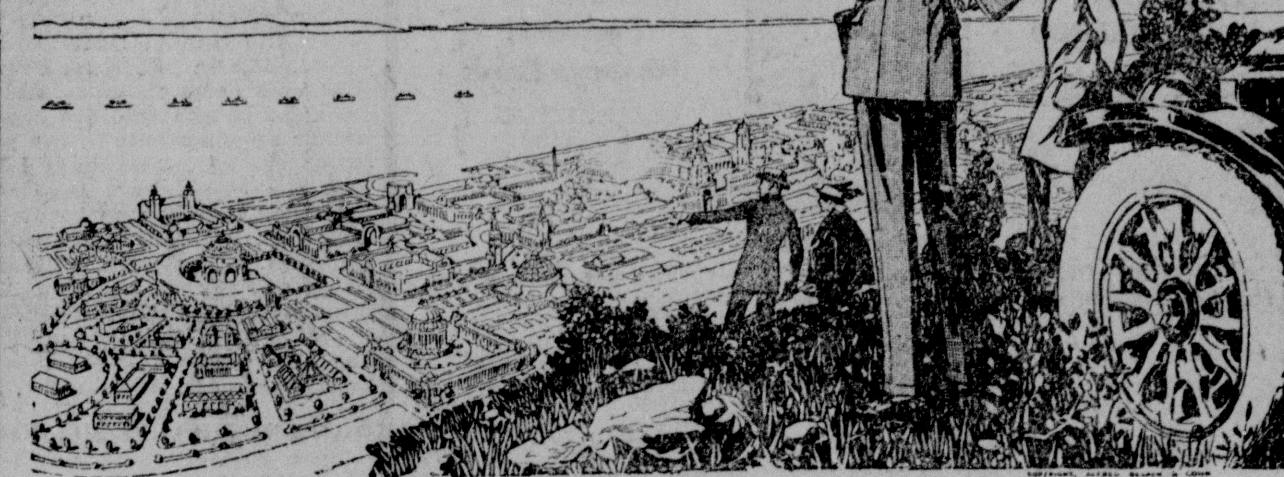

The eight hour system for state institutions is not new. At Peoria the hospital has had the eight hour day for two years. Jacksonville is the last state hospital for the insane to adopt the eight-hour schedule. Whether or not this can be done successfully here without additional expense must be proven as time moves along.

DELIVERED ADDRESS.
